MANTELS

Which combine all the good qualities and all of the lesser ones are what we endeavor at all times to have. The designs are pretty, the material good, the finish most perfect, or less perfect, as the buyer may desire. By less perfect we mean less expensive. Some people do not want to pay as much as others. It's not every one who would buy a Mantel for $25, yet many would expect to pay more. You can choose which.

THE SPANISH TREATY.

The Workmen in Barcelona Are Opposed to It.

Barcelona, Aug. 10.—The National Labor association fearing the consequences to Spanish workmen, that it is believed, will follow the going into effect of the treaty in regard to Cuba and Porto Rico, recently ratified by Spain and the United States, held a meeting to protest against the commercial relations that will be established under the new arrangement.

The effect of the treaty was set forth at length by the various speakers, who declared that it would render Cuba a colony of the United States.

The speakers were very energetic in their denunciations of the treaty and there was great excitement among the audience.

The meeting decided to use all the means in its power to secure the revocation of the treaty, and it was also decided to summon a monster meeting of all the people engaged in the Castalian trade to protest against it.

LOST HIS MONEY.

President W. I. Squire has a Sad Experience in Columbus.

Columbus, Ohio, Aug. 10.—W. I. Squire, of Toledo, president of the Ohio Republican League, whose headquarters are in this city, went into a High-street restaurant Saturday for dinner, and on emerging from the restaurant had a five-dollar bill changed to pay for the dinners.

The bill was taken from a roll containing two checks made payable to and indorsed by Mr. Squire and $125 in cash, which, as Mr. Squire thinks, he returned to his pantaloons pocket.

An hour after leaving the restaurant he missed the entire bundle, but inquiry at the place failed to find anyone who had found it and Mr. Squire is out $860. He does not know whether he lost or was "touched" for the amount.

The checks were drawn on Toledo banks, but as Squire had indorsed them he fears it is too late to stop payment. The police are working on the case.

ON A ROCK IN A FOG.

The City of Newport Gives Her Passengers a Scare.

Newport, R. I., Aug. 10.—Newport was enveloped in a dense fog last night. The steamer City of Newport, laden with excursionists from Providence, at a late hour struck a rock opposite Coasters' harbor island.

The passengers were badly frightened. Capt. Kelly, however, assured them that he could bring the boat to her wharf, which he did at about 11:30 o'clock. The steamer was leaking badly, but the extent of the damage cannot be stated now. Everything considered it was a narrow escape.

WANT MORE PAY.

A Railroad Strike at Lima—"C" Company Off For Camp.

Lima, Aug. 10.—(Special.)—Lake Erie & Western yard men here all went out on a strike at 9 o'clock this morning.

The yard engines are all side-tracked and business is suspended.

The men demand $2.25 a day and a third man for each engine. They have been receiving $2.10 a day.

Company C left this morning with flying colors for their annual encampment at Bowling Green.

LANDED HIM IN JAIL.

A Depraved Young Man Behind the Bars in Lima.

Lima, O., Aug. 10.—(Special.)—For the last six weeks the police have been looking for a man who has been appearing daily at the homes in the south side in various stages of nudity and making indecent proposals to the ladies, badly frightening them.

Last night Tim Murphy, a worthless young man whose parents live south of town, was identified by one of the women he had frightened, and arrested. He is in danger of being mobbed. He is now in the city prison.

Deserting Parnell.

Dublin, Aug. 10.—A telegram has been received in this city from Belfast stating that Messrs. Dillon and O'Brien have persuaded four of the Irish members of the house of commons, who, since the disruption in Irish parliamentary affairs, have followed the partyship of Mr. Parnell, to secede from the Parnellite section and to cast their fortune with the McCarthyites, the section that is opposed to Mr. Parnell as a leader of the Irish cause.

American Schooners to be Released.

Washington, Aug. 10.—Telegraphic information received at the state department from the United States consul at St. Stephen, N. B., confirms the press reports from Ottawa, of the 8th inst., that the Canadian government proposed to release the seven American fishing vessels seized by the Canadian cruiser Dream near Eastport.

A Wichita woman has had 27 servant girls within less than a year, and the last one she employed had worked for 32 different mistresses during the year.

IS STILL AT LARGE.

The Chase After the Ohio Jesse James.

Fifteen Hundred Men Close on His Trail,

Yet None of Them Can Bring Him Down.

Over a Thousand Dollars Offered for His Arrest.

Dodging in and Out of the Woods and Cornfields He Succeeds in Eluding His Pursuers.

Columbus Grove, O., Aug. 10.—(Special)—When these despatches closed Saturday afternoon, it was thought that the desperado who robbed the Exchange bank in the morning would be caught in a few hours.

But the expectations of the posses in pursuit were not realized.

Saturday night 1,000 men were scouting through the corn fields, wheat fields and meadows lying between Bluffton, Beaver Dam, West Cairo and Columbus Grove, but the robber was still at liberty. The closest watch was kept up all night long, and traces of the desperado were found at intervals.

William Vandemark, the good old farmer who was the innocent victim of one of the murderer's bullets, died at 3 o'clock

HUNTING DOWN THE MURDERER.

Sunday morning at his home near Vaughnsville, four miles west of Columbus Grove.

Hundreds of his neighbors and friends drove to the family homestead to-day to condole with the family. Mr. Vandemark was born near Columbus, O., but has been a resident of Putnam county 50 years. His death is deeply deplored and has had the effect of causing renewed vigor to be put in the determined men who are in pursuit of his murderer. His funeral will be the largest ever seen in Putnam county. The ball which caused his death entered above the fifth rib and passed clear through the side.

Officers Hugh Patton, Jack Stockton and Charley Rooney have returned home. They say they never saw such an excited populace in all their lives. They declare there are 1,500 men out after the murderer; that they drive through corn fields with buggies, leave fences down and break down wide rows of corn in their eagerness to overhaul the robber.

Sheriff Williamson, of Putnam, was on the ground with a big force of deputies, but from lack of organization the pursuers are more like a mob than sensible men.

The desperado is a fleet runner. He stopped at George Bailey's farm house to obtain a drink of water, and at several farm houses between Beaver Dam and Bluffton.

At Frank Fleet's house a large posse of men were waiting for him. He dashed out of the cornfield right among the crowd. Fleet leveled his gun, but he dashed into the woods and was lost to view.

He was again surrounded in Tom Wilkinson's woods, but his nerve did not fail and he dashed out into the open country.

He ran across a gang of men about nine miles southeast, employed by the Standard Oil company in laying a new oil line to pump oil from Findlay to the refinery at Lima. These men had no knowledge of the robbery. He asked for something to eat and the boys divided their lunch with him. He wears the same clothes that he had on at Columbus Grove.

He called at the farm house owned by Mrs. Repert, who was sick in bed. He rushed into the house with his murderous revolvers in each hand. Her two daughters went into hysterics, and Mrs. Repert had an attack of heart trouble. It is feared she will die from the shock.

He stole a valuable blooded mare from the field on the farm of David Grafton about 4 o'clock Sunday afternoon, and at 7 o'clock he was seen going in the direction of Ada.

It is belived by many that he belongs to the Mervin Kuhn gang of horse thieves, and that he is trying to reach Prospect, O., by way of Marion.

At 11 o'clock Sunday a joint meeting was held between the president of the board of county commissioners of Putnam county, the mayor and council of this village and the president of the Exchange bank and a reward was agreed upon and is offered as follows:

The county offers $500, the municipality $250 and the bank $300.

Besides this a subscription paper has been started among the people, which in connection with the official amounts offered, aggregates considerably above a thousand dollars.

Policemen from the forces of neighboring cities and several experienced detectives have formed in the chase.

Corn cutters and pitchforks as well as all kinds of fire arms are used by the pursuers.

At one o'clock Sunday morning, four miles east of Bluffton, he followed a farmer and his family home who had been attending a show, and with his ready revolver compelled them to get him a meal.

The stolen horse was tied to the branches of a tree by a rope halter. During his stay at this place an attempt was made to buy of the farmer a buggy and harness, or even a bridle, but the attempt was in vain.

It is highly probable the hunted man rode his horse into Findlay, jumped a train, and is by this time far enough away.

It was almost noon Sunday before the theft of the horse was discovered, and much later when the direction taken was learned and a knowledge obtained that the man hunted and the horse stolen were traveling together.

The telephone betwee Paris and London having been so successful it is proposed to connect Brussels and London. For that purpose a cable will be laid between Ostend and Dover.

DROWNED WHILE BOATING.

Four Young People Lost Their Lives Sunday.

Milwaukee, Wis., Aug. 10.—Four young people, children of prominent Milwaukee business men, were drowned at Lake Pewaukee, twenty miles from here, Sunday.

They were out in a small sail boat with three other young people. A squall struck the boat, capsizing it. It was heavily ballasted, and sank almost immediately, leaving the seven people struggling in the water. The names of the drowned are:

Albert and Emma Barth, Martha Kindling, and Clara Siegler, their ages ranging from fifteen to twenty years, and their fathers are Louis Kindling, Peter Barth and Leopold Siegler. The young people had been spending a few days at Lake Pewaukee, which is a favorite resort for Milwaukeeans.

Went Away With the Funds.

Philadelphia, Aug. 10.—Henry D. Fiesel, justice of the peace and clerk of councils for the borough of Lansdale, Montgomery county, Pa., is reported to have absconded after misappropriating $400 of the funds of the Lansdale lodge of Odd Fellows, of which he was secretary, and getting into debt to the extent of about $10,000. He has left behind him a wife and five children, who are absolutely destitute. Charges are insinuated against him of misappropriating councils money, and the books are to be examined.

For Union Soldiers.

St. Louis, Mo., Aug. 10.—George E. Dalton, who was elected in Detroit general of the society known as the "Comrades of the Battlefield," says that the statement disseminated from Detroit to the effect that the organization included both the blue and the gray was misleading, and that union soldiers only were eligible to membership.

A Boy's Awful Suffering.

Wauseon, Aug. 10.—(Special)—Death came yesterday morning to relieve a young sufferer. Eddie Warren, aged 14, was taken with brain and spinal fever some weeks since. For the past week he has been totally blind and deaf, and almost speechless. The funeral takes place to-morrow.

A Timely Rain.

Cheboygan, Mich., Aug. 10.—The long drouth was partially broken Sunday afternoon by a copious shower, but not sufficient to penetrate any depth in the ground. The forest fires are smouldering and dense smoke is hanging over the city. The weather threatens more rain.

Pattern Works Burned.

Canton, O., Aug. 10.—Fire Saturday night destroyed the large pattern works of Sherlock, Elmer & Sherlock, entailing a heavy loss, which unfortunately is but partially covered by insurance.

A Rusty Nail Killed Him.

Wapakoneta, Aug. 10.—A week ago John Berther, a carpenter aged 60 years, stepped on a rusty nail. A few days later lockjaw set in and he died yesterday after suffering all the horrors of that disease.

Cut His Throat.

Newton, Mass., Aug. 10.—G. M. Shinn, the eldest son of the Rev. G. W. Shinn, committed suicide by cutting his throat. He was despondent because the government did not adopt a patent letter box which he had invented.

IN A FINANCIAL CLOUD.

Unprecedented Stagnation in Wall Street.

Henry Clews Says the Present State of Affairs Is Due to What He Calls a World's Panic.

New York, Aug. 10.—An hour in Wall street has ruined many a millionaire, but the one I spent there yesterday was exceedingly profitable in an educational way. Napoleon Bonapart said he found the crown of France lying in the gutter and picked it up and put it on his head. The crown of Wall street has been lying in the gutter for a long time, but no one dares to pick it up and assume the leadership. "Greenwood cemetery," said John R. Fellows, as I turned into the office of Henry Clews, in Broad street, "is a cheerful picnic compared to this." He meant the street, not Clews' office. The remark seemed like exaggeration; for the period of 45 minutes between 1 and 2 o'clock not a single cork was heard to pot in Broad street Delmonico's. Such a thing is unprecedented and better than anything else marks the stagnation of the street.

"I do not remember any exactly like period of stagnation," said Henry Clews, as I asked him if he could point me to a similar depression in the past, "outside of panics. This, however, seems more like a world's panic than anything else: we have sent our gold to Europe, a good many millions of it, and they are quietly keeping it over there where it is safe, and refuse to lend us any assistance in return. I do not think it is being hoarded on account of any prospect of war, and for the very reason, indeed, that there is such difficulty in assigning a definite cause for this unexampled stagnation I have used the term, world's panic.' When will the tide turn? Nobody knows. We are in a financial fog. As far as investors having lost confidence in corporate properties on account of recent decisions of the courts so limiting and minimizing the responsibility of directors as to put the stockholders completely at their mercy. I am of the opinion that these decisons have undoubtedly engendered distrust and alarmed investors. It is difficult to see just where this drift of decisions will land owners of corporate property, but no doubt in this respect matters will become worse before they get better."

Henry Clews—nobody ever calls him "Harry"—was as chipper while uttering these gloomy views as if he didn't have 12 offices to support, 12 rents to pay and 12 sets of clerks to keep in wages. The fact of the business is that the majority of the brokers are losing little fortunes every week now in office rent and running expenses which cannot be curtailed even, although the head of the house may not sell a share of stock for a week at a time.

CONFEDERATE VETERANS.

An Order to Push the Organization to the Front.

New Orleans, Aug. 10.—J. B. Gordon, general commanding the confederate veterans, has issued the following order:

1. The general commanding announces the following appointments in accordance with Article 6 of the constitution, to-wit: A. H. Colquitt, major general for the division of Tennessee; Jas. C. Tappan, major general for the division of Arkansas.

2. These officers will immediately enter upon the discharge of their duties, and will be obeyed and respected accordingly.

3. The attention of the major generals named above, and also in all other divisions, is directed to article 10 of the constitution, and they are urged to push the organization of camps in their respective divisions vigorously.

The general commanding will announce appointments for the remaining divisions at an early day.

Another Louisville Bank Goes Under.

Louisville, Aug. 10—The Masonic savings bank made an assignment to the Germania Safety Vault and Trust company at two o'clock Saturday afternoon. This failure has not been expected. When the day's balances with the clearing house were made at noon the bank owed $132,500, which it was unable to pay. The Clearing House had been carrying the bank for some time, but after consultation it was decided that the best thing to be done was to make an assignment.

Shot By His Son.

Cincinnati, Aug. 10—George Neiman, cobbler, was shot and instantly killed Sunday by his 20-year-old son Charles. The shooting is the result of a family quarrel.

COMING LABOR CONGRESS

The Socialists are Preparing to Capture It.

German War Minister Tries to Head Them Off.

Any Soldiers Caught Reading a Socialistic Paper is to be Fined—Late Cable News.

London, Aug. 10.—The socialists are making great preparations to control the coming International Labor congress. In London they are forming societies of those who had not been affiliated before, and they will send a large number of delegates, representing socialists pure and simple. The socialists are also active in the regular trades unions, and while a union cannot be controlled by the socialist element, they make a point to support for delegates men whose ideas come nearest their own.

Notwithstanding all the efforts of the socialists, however, it is certain that England's representatives in the congress will be overwhelmingly trades union, without any perference for socialism. The English delegates will form, it is expected, about a third of the congress. Delegates are expected from every country in Europe, not excepting Russia, although no Russian workingman is likely to go back to that country after he has attended the congress.

In Spain some enthusiasm is reported in Barcelona relative to the congress, and there will be delegates from that city. They will probably represent a revolutionary sentiment and be in line with the most advanced doctrines of a socialistic character. Altogether the congress will be the most interesting yet held.

A Berlin dispatch says the social democracy is actively stirring for recruits, and the members of the reserve are among the particular objects of their attention. The evidence of this has caused irritation and apprehension in the ministry of war, and orders have been issued to officers, down to regimental commanders, instructing them to see that their soldiers, whether in the reserve or not, are not permitted to read papers or books advocating socialism.

Any soldier caught reading a socialistic periodical is to be punished by imprisonment and fine. The German government is determined to suppress with a stern hand any tendencies in the army of a revolutionary character.

The situation of the Irish party does not seem to improve with Dillon and O'Brien out of prison. O'Brien maintains comparative seclusion and Dillon who was willing at first to be aggressive against Parnell, has, it is said, almost concluded not to take a share in the struggle between the two factions. The reported scandal in the family of an Irish M. P. opposed to Parnell will probably not come before the public. The first wife, it is said, has accepted the offered compromise, and will maintain the reticence on the subject which she has maintained for years.

A dispatch from Constantinople states that the Sultan has ordered the formation of a military camp near Adrianople for the purpose of training the men in the use of arms. This is rendered necessary, as the Turkish army is now mostly composed of new recruits who have seen no service. The veterans of Pleuna and other fields are greatly outnumbered by the new men. The Turkish army has no regular maneuvres, but the sultan evidently means to imitate in some degree the methods of his neighbors. The best tacticians in the Turkish army will be present in the camp and supervise the drill.

The crofters of Skye, in the Scottish Highlands, do not take kindly to the idea of emigration. They claim that there is land enough for all, and that they should have more of the forest, instead of being driven from their homes to make way for the grouse and the deer.

In this position the Skye crofters have the sympathy of the people generally in Scotland and England. The government, however, is in favor of the emigration scheme, and thousands of crofters on the islands and moors of Scotland will be offered a pressing invitation before long to seek new homes in Australia or Canada.

FIENDS ON THE PLAINS.

They Rob and Almost Beat a Man to Death.

They Strip Him and Leave Him to Make His Way to the Village as Best He Can.

Carson City, Nev., Aug. 10.—The Silver State publishes the following particulars of one of the most fiendish deeds in the annals of Nevada:

"Deputy Sheriff Nofsinger returned from Wadsworth yesterday having in charge two prisoners named John Hayes and Wm. ——, who are accused of highway robbery.

"The crime was committed a week ago last Saturday, and the particulars, as near as can be ascertained, are as follows:

The two men and another, whose name is not known, were put off the train at Mill City, and started to walk to Humboldt house, the next station. About half way between the two places they ran across John Hall, a cook, and, finding that he had some money, proceeded to relieve him of it.

"They beat him with an iron wrench until his body was covered with bruises, took every stitch of clothing he had, together with a silver watch and $23 in money, and left him to walk naked under a broiling sun to Humboldt house.

"When he arrived there the station employes and section hands fitted him out with clothing, and he went to Wadsworth. There he saw the tramps who had robbed him and the two mentioned above were arrested, the third escaping.

"When arrested one of the men had on Hall's clothes. It seems that he took the clothes as his share of the booty, the other two dividing the money between them. They sold the watch to an Indian for $3.

"The Wadsworth officers notified Sheriff Fellows of the arrest and Deputy Nofsinger went down after them and brought them back, together with Hall, who is held as complaining witness."

An Exploded Phenom.

Canton, Aug. 10.—Melbourne is an exploded phenom. Sunday he was to bring another of his self-patented storms, but instead of rain the heat has been almost unbearable, with not a cloud in the sky. He may be able to bring a storm in Australia, but his efforts in that line here have proved anything but successful.

Shortage Increased.

Louisville, Ky., Aug. 10.—The shortage of Sylvester Young, defaulting cashier of the Newport News & Mississippi Valley railroad, instead of $25,000 as first supposed, is now known to be at least $38,000. It may reach more upon further investigation. No clue yet to Young's whereabouts.

GROWING CROPS.

Reports from the Weather Bureau at Washington.

Washington, Aug. 10.—The following is taken from the weekly crop bulletin:

Ohio—Condition unfavorable for corn and potatoes; pastures are suffering from drouth in the northwest counties. Hardin county farmers are cutting their oats to so save them from chinch bugs and grasshoppers; the oat harvest is generally very good; fall plowing has commenced.

Michigan—Light local showers only have fallen in many sections, the dry weather affecting the growth of corn and potatoes; oats are being harvested, with a good yield; rain is needed badly.

Illinois—Where rain fell the corn and pastures are somewhat improved, but more rain is needed. Fruit, excepting apples, is abundant. Farmers are plowing for wheat, but the ground is too dry to work easily.

Indiana—The prevalence of sunshiny weather has been very favorable to standing crops. The heavy rain on the 3d instance was of incalculable value, as it saved the corn and pasturage. The plowing for wheat continues, the ground being in admirable condition where rain has fallen.

CITY OF PANAMA SEIZED.

San Salvador and the Pacific Mail Steamships.

A Business Difference Has Been Allowed to Grow Until Complications Now Arise.

New York, Aug. 10.—A special cable from San Salvador to the Herald says the Salvadorian authorities have seized the Pacific mail steamship City of Panama, commanded by Capt. White, because the vessel left La Union without a permit from the captain of that port.

The seizure took place at La Libertad. The seizure is the outcome of the strained relations which have existed between the Salvadorian government and the steamship company on account of the autocratic dealing of the latter with Salvador.

Its ships have the sole control of all the traffic between the Central American states and the United States, and the rates charged have been so excessive that Salvador and the other Central American countries have been forced to take retaliatory measures.

These were in the form of laws making it illegal to employ natives at night. As the custom of the company has been to load the vessels at night so as to make quicker time, it naturally resented this interference.

The culmination of the friction between the government and the company was reached by the seizure of the City of Panama which left La Union without taking a lot of goods which the authorities insisted on being shipped.

Killed by a Rattlesnake.

Nashville, Tenn., Aug. 10.—The body of Miss Lulu Bowling was found Saturday morning in the woods near Bradyville, in Cannon county. The young woman had been bitten in a dozen places by a rattlesnake, as was shown by as many discolored places on her body, which was badly swollen. Coiled up beside the body was the reptile which had caused the young woman's death. It was killed. It measured five feet and had 18 rattles and a button and was one of the largest rattlesnakes ever seen in the county.

The Greatest Show on Earth.

Findlay, Aug. 10.—(Special)—The Barnum & Bailey show, much larger and better than ever, gave two exhibitions in this city on Saturday to a crowd estimated at 30,000 people. The verdict from every quarter was the show certainly deserves the many flattering notices showered upon it from both press and public wherever exhibited. The exhibition is more worthy of patronage this year than ever, and is well named "the greatest show on earth."

Judge Hoffman Dead.

San Francisco, Aug. 10.—Judge Ogden Hoffman died early yesterday morning of paralysis of the heart. He had been ill for a long time. Judge Hoffman has been a United States judge for over forty years, longer than any other United States judge in the country.

Coming to the Fair.

Washington, Aug. 10.—The Bureau of American Republics is in receipt of information from Lieutenant Sawyer, U. S. N., special commissioner of the World's fair to Brazil, which would indicate that great interest is being manifested in the north provinces in behalf of the World's Columbian exposition.

Harrison to Visit Elkins.

Washington, Aug. 10.—The president will go to West Virginia in the autumn as the guest of the Hon. Stephen B. Elkins at the club house on Cheat mountain, near Beverly. Secretary Blaine has been invited to join the party which will spend the time deer hunting.

Disabled at Sea.

New York, Aug. 10.—The cattle steamship Europe, of the National line, which sailed from this city for Liverpool last Wednesday, returned to port late yesterday afternoon with two blades of her propeller broken. They were lost by striking a drifting log or a submerged wreck.

Ended in Murder.

Savannah, Ga., Aug. 10.—Hezekiah Arp a nephew of the original Bill Arp, shot and killed Wm. Bramlett and his brother near the state line in Fannin county Saturday. The trouble grew out of a claim which Arp had against Wm. Bramlett.

Douglass Talking Again.

Washington, Aug. 10.—Mr. Douglass says there is no authority for the statement that he will resign. He has said that he might not return to Hayti but the matter is still undecided. He says he may decide to resign but if he should there will be nothing sensational about it.

Drowned While Bathing.

Astoria, Ogn., Aug. 10.—Mrs. P. W. Parker, wife of the proprietor of the Morning Astorian, was drowned at Clatsop beach, yesterday. She was carried out by the undertow while in bathing.

FEAR TROUBLE IN CHINA.

American Squadron There to be Greatly Increased.

The Situation Has Grown so Alarming that the United States Government Must Act.

Washington, Aug. 10.—The navy department is arranging to augment our strength in Chinese waters as rapidly and as effectively as possible. Instructions have been sent by the Alaska steamer which sailed from San Francisco Saturday for the Marion to proceed at once from Bering sea to China.

It is also stated that instructions were also sent for the Alert to follow the Marion. It is not improbable that the Charleston may also be ordered to join the Asiatic station.

These orders indicate that the government is alarmed at the situation in China and is hastening to send all the vessels that can be prepared for the protection of American citizens and interests in China.

The British gentlewoman's cigarette making society is an institution recently started. The ladies employed by the society receive 6d per 100 cigarettes made—more than twice the price generally paid. The best brands are kept, and every cigarette is rolled by hand—an important consideration, as every tobacco epicure knows to his cost.

DEATHS FROM THE HEAT.

The Scorching Rays of Old Sol in the Land.

Cyclones Follow the Warm Wave in the West.

Buildings Blown Down, Trees Uprooted, and Crops and Fences Greatly Damaged.

Chicago, Aug. 10.—Corpses found among lumber heaps, women dropping dead while washing, men falling from ice wagons and drays were the thermometers that registered yesterdays heat.

A dead man named Bertram was stumbled upon by John Slitt in the afternoon, the sun having killed him and left him lying in a lumber yard.

Mrs. Mary Dahl, aged 38, employed in a Thirty-first street laundry, died from the effects of the heat.

Among others who were prostrated, but who will probably recover, are Joseph Rick, Victor Watson and Powell Komm.

FOLLOWING BY A CYCLONE.

A Great Storm Raged in the West Yesterday.

Ottumway, Ia., Aug. 10—A heavy wind, of cyclonic proportions, was the consummation of the terrific heat of the past two days. Humestone, Corydon, Centerville, Ottumwa, Agency and other towns that lay in its path, suffered more or less.

At Humestone cars were blown from the track of the Keokuk & Western road, the roundhouse was demolished and houses unroofed. Fields of grain were prostrated, creating great loss.

At Corydon the large court house was unroofed and the county offices damaged. The Methodist church was demolished and the depot blown down.

At Ottumwa the gale swept the roofs from the stores of A. D. Moss, A. P. Peterson, the large warehouse of Harper, McIntyre & Co., and the "Q" roundhouse. The coal palace tower was twisted, the windows blown in and the scaffolding thrown across telegraph and telephone wires, shutting off communication for a few hours.

At Franklin Park Agency and Batavia, buildings were unroofed and large trees uprooted. No persons are reported killed, but the damage to crops and other property will be great.

Des Moines, Ia., Aug. 10.—A terrific wind accompanied by rain and hail, passed over Decatur county about noon yesterday. It was the worst storm ever known in that part of the state and the damage was great. Crops over a wide track of territory are destroyed. Trees were prostrated and buildings destroyed. So far as known no lives were lost.

Damage by Wind.

Chicago, Aug. 10.—The high wind that accompanied the thunderstorm yesterday afternoon played havoc in the southern portion of the city. Large branches of trees were broken off, shrubbery scattered in every direction, signs torn from their fastenings and other damage inflicted. The most serious result of the wind storm was at Seventy first street and Greenwood avenue, where the frame dwelling of Fred Greiger was blown from its foundations and demolished. Mr. Greiger's left arm was broken in three places. Mrs. Greiger's nose and right arm were broken. The three children escaped unhurt.

A barn belonging to Jacob Walter on Central avenue was struck by lightning last night and totally destroyed. The contents were saved. The loss was $3,000; fully insured.

Wm. Collins, a teamster living at No. 4740 Lake street, was struck by lightning last night and instantly killed. He was standing in the doorway of a barn when the bolt came. Collins was 35 years old and unmarried.

Died from Sunstroke.

Bloomington, Ill., Aug. 10.—Robert Curty, an old resident and a native of Switzerland, died suddenly at noon yesterday from sunstroke. The heat was greater yesterday than that of any previous day of the summer, reaching 95 degrees.

97 in the Shade.

Racine, Wis., Aug. 10.—Yesterday was the warmest day known in Racine for many years, the thermometer registering 97 degrees in the shade. Several cases of sunstroke have been reported.

Injured the Crops.

St. Paul, Aug. 10.—Last night's crop and weather reports from North Dakota indicate that at least a dozen counties of that state have been very seriously affected by the terrific heat of the last four days.

The wheat along the Manitoba border was just in the milk, two weeks at least from harvest and the intense protracted heat is said to have blistered and shriveled it to such an extent as to ruin a large part of it and render the remainder all off grade.

The country west of Bismarck is said not to have suffered at all and the counties along the Red river in Minnesota and North Dakota but little. A slight shrinkage from blight and rust are expected in Polk, Otter Tail and Wilkin counties, Minn.

THE BRIDE FAILED TO APPEAR.

A Canton Avenue Marriage Postponed Indefinitely—The Heart-broken Bridegroom

There was to be a highfalutin marriage ceremony on Canton avenue Saturday night, but owing to the failure of the bride to put in an appearance the marriage has been postponed and the colony on the avenue who had received invitations were grievously disappointed.

The contracting parties were Mrs. Ren Fuller and Mr. Israel Gee. Mrs. Fuller is the person who, sometime last May, went on a bender on the avenue the night her husband was shot, and came near breaking her neck by falling down an embankment. The patrol was called into service, and Ren spent the night in the police station.

She thought it high time she was getting into double harness again, and when Israel proposed for her hand and heart she accepted him as a matter of course.

The wedding was to have taken place Saturday night, and the Rev. P. S. Slevin was present for the purpose of tying the knot. There was also present a large delegation of the friends and acquaintances on both sides, and it was proposed by the boys to give the fair Ren and the brave Israel a charivari such as has not been seen on the avenue for years.

Ren, it seems, is cook on a lumber barge, and while nothing has been heard from her so far, it is believed she missed connection somewhere in the bay Saturday night. Israel is heartbroken, and says he will have her if he has to get a United States marshal to libel the barge.

Guenther Goes Free.

Dayton, O., Aug. 10.—The sensational murder trial of Henry Guenther for the alleged crime of murdering his wife by poison, came to an abrupt close Saturday. The poison was said to have been forced in the arteries by the embalmer after the woman's death. The court could not tell whether the poison found resulted from embalming fluid or from being taken in food while alive, and so dismissed the case.

THE COURT OF CLAIMS.

Work for the Coming Session to Do.

Nineteen Thousand Cases on the Docket.

Personnel of a Court that Has Been and Will Be the Mediator in Suits Involving Millions.

Washington, Aug. 10.—Nearly 4,000 claims for damages on account of Indian depredations were filed in the court of claims Saturday, under the provisions of the act of March 3, 1891, giving the court special jurisdiction in such cases. Mr. W. L. Colby has been appointed counsel to represent the interests of the United States in these cases.

Perhaps none of the Federal courts annually transacts more business and, excepting appeals to the supreme court, furnish final settlement for so many cases in which the government is defendant, as the court of claims.

And perhaps it is equally true that less of the action of this court becomes generally known than that of any other body which makes up a part of the national executive machinery.

However much of a truism those assertions may be, one thing is a certainty, and that is, no court of law, from the highest to the lowest among the United States dispensaries of legal judgment can lay claim to the extraordinary amount of embryo settlements which a comparatively small number of judges will be called upon to adjust.

The court of claims has reached high-water mark in its program for the session of 1891-1892, and goes on record with a docket which eclipses the largest known in the 37 years of its existence.

With a largely-increased mass of suits to pass upon and no increase in the number of judges, next term will be remarkable in more senses than one, excluding the unheard-of total of almost 19,000 disputes which need a mediator.

The actions brought, like a junkshop, run from ordinary cases of damage, District suits, and French spoliation claims to a myriad under the Bowman act and the Indian depredation law.

The great number of cases awaiting disposal, together with the legal delays allowed both the claimants and the government at once settles the question that fully 85 per cent., if not more, of the suits will receive no adjudication at the coming session.

Just how many of the suits can be furnished with judicial judgment is equally problematical, although the Indian depredation claims are likely to be handled in classes where a similarity of issue exists and the legal technicalities are practically the same.

In this manner the assistant attorney-general expects most of the latter class will be removed from further consideration, and if the French spoliation claims, together with some under the Bowman act, are found to be in much the same shape, or a good portion of them in any case, the probabilities will be in favor of the court being able to sustain its record of late years and relegate for settlement about the same number of cases during the session as the newly entered suits will reach.

Heretofore the justices have not experienced much difficulty in accomplishing this, but the next session's results will depend entirely on the character and number of the Indian claims.

As many of these are being reserved by the attorneys until nearer the time that congress meets, the list will naturally be augmented by the looked-for additions, with a consequently extra amount of work in prospect for the court.

Numbers of the cases on file, though, as well as a fair proportion of those not docketed, have already had a hearing before specially authorized commissioners and regular agents, and in that event the findings of the bureau of inquiry will be accepted as fact, without further argument or trial before judgment is rendered.

This will lessen the array very materially and increase the chances of leaving the docket with practically the relative amount of undisposed business at the end of the session as was the case at the previous adjournment.

Since the organization in 1854, and during its transition state from a court of jurisdiction, including the power to declare judgment the whole number of cases filed against the United States has been in round numbers 17,000. Of this total some 2,500 have never received more than formal legal notices of testimony closed and like technical rules, many being of ten or twelve years' standing. The delays have been due principally to the tardiness of claimants in presenting full evidence or neglect to serve proper notice when such evidence was all presented, as required under the practice.

The 1,000 or more French spoliation claims passed up to date and having appropriations granted by congress so far involved an expenditure in the neighborhood of $1,000,000 by the government, but in spite of the fact that the time has expired for filing other claims under the act of 1885, it is known that hundreds more of that class have never been taken in hand, and the opinion is expressed among some of the justices that an act of congress will, without much doubt, be passed at the next session extending the period for filing claims under the original act.

The number of unadjudicated French spoliation claims is still between 5,000 and 6,000, and about 7,000 cases await judgment under the Bowman law of 1883, the majority of these claims being in the nature of damage suits for supplies and stores pressed into use for army service during the war.

With fully 4,000, and in all likelihood 5,000, Indian depredation claims added by the time the session gets well under way, the whole docket, plus the 2,500 cases of longer standing, will foot up nearly 19,000 separate and distinct issues, always with the possibility, nevertheless, that class cases will reduce the total at a heavier rate than in previous convocations.

That this year's docket is the heaviest the justices have ever been called upon to clear is, of course, due to the latest act of congress, extending the court's jurisdiction, but while the newly-established bureau, with reference to Indian claims, will be of considerable assistance, court officials do not hesitate to express the opinion that the ultimate rule will not vary in comparison to any appreciable degree.

Aside from these later claims the aggregate number of cases in general jurisdiction will not be changed, and the claims are supposed to be nearly on a par with those of the 1890-1891 session. So that the difference in favor of next term, as to increase, will be from 3,500 to 5,000.

To dispose of all the work which the court can take in hand during its limited term five justices, numbering Chief Justice William A. Richardson, and Judges Charles C. Nott, Lawrence Weldon, Glenni W. Schofield, and John Davis, will be occupied, while the Government will be represented by Assistant Attorney General John B. Cotton, and assistants F. P. Dewees, W. J. Rannels, H. M. Foote, J. C. Chaney, J. H. Nixon, and Felix Brannigan, making the personnel of the court the same as last year.

Chief Justice Richardson has a lengthy and honorable record as a public servant, and was first appointed as judge in 1874, becoming presiding officer of the court January 20, 1885. He served as judge of probate and judge of probate and insolvency in his native state, Massachusetts, for nearly sixteen years, and was one of the commissioners who revised the general statutes of that commonwealth in 1860. Justice Richardson in 1881 prepared and edited the supplement to the revised statutes of the United States by special act of congress, and assisted in several works of the same class for Massachusetts for many years previous to his assuming the position of adjudicator of claims against the government. President Grant appointed him Secretary of the Treasury in his second term as the nation's chief executive, an office which he filled up to the time of his appointment to the department which now claims his services.

In point of service Judge Nott is the oldest occupant of the Court of Claims bench, having received his portfolio as early as February 22, 1865, since which date he has been engaged in hearing argument and passing judgment upon cases claiming attention at each session of the body of which he is a member. He is the author of a standard work on mechanics' liens, and at the time of his appointment was engaged in active law practice in New York city, where he also held the office of commissioner of loans for some years.

The next judge according to length of tenure in office is Glenni W. Schofield, of Pennsylvania, who was appointed May 20, 1881. Previous to that time Judge Scofield occupied a bench in a Keystone state district court and served several terms as a representative in the national house. As Register of the Treasury under President Garfield up to May, 1881, Judge Scofield's formal signature on treasury notes is familiar to such citizens who have been, or are, the fortunate possessors of plenty of bills with large denominational figures.

Judge Weldon is a native of Illinois and for twenty-five years held an extensive law practice until he was chosen a United States district attorney by President Lincoln for the southern district of Illinois, and holding that responsible office during a part of President Johnson's administration. Judge Weldon was elevated to the bench November 24, 1883.

Judge Davis claims Washington as his permanent residence and has assisted his associates in deciding cases since January, 1885. He has seen a long period of government service, and before the French-American claims commission acted as assistant counsel for the nation to which he owes allegiance. He followed his profession of law for some years as a member of the New York bar, and later in the District. The youngest incumbent of the Court of Claims also held various positions in the diplomatic service, and was First Assistant Secretary of State under President Arthur.

Unlike the wearers of the woolsack in the federal supreme court, Chief Justice Richardson and his colleagues find a major part of the court vacation occupied in preparing for the heavy requirements of next term and framing opinions of judgment some of which will be of a highly important nature for the reason that no precisely similar cases are of record so far as heavy damages go. The principal one of this class is now the famous suit of the Cherokee nation against the United States which was tried at the last term, when Judge Dewees represented the government, and the plaintiffs had as counsel ex-Attorney General Garland, John Paul Jones, and Charles Voorhees. The suit involves $17,500,000, which the Cherokees claim as their dues for acreage of which they were deprived under the treaty of 1848, and in lieu of the $700,000 allowed by act of congress some years ago, as full compensation for the portions of Virginia, Tennessee and other states to which the five tribes were entitled by the first treaty in 1808.

Judgment in this case will be rendered at the December convocation, but one of the heaviest contests in which the government's representatives will be compelled to take part is scheduled for trial this session after years of delay. The suit in question is that of George W. Morse, of Baton Rouge, La., for infringements of patents without compensation, and in case of an adverse decision to the government Uncle Sam will be mulcted to the tune of $4,500,000. In 1856 the plaintiff secured patents for a breech-loading gun and cartridge. While working up a defense the assistant attorney general discovered that specimens of breech-loading weapons are in possession of the United States at the Washington navy yard and at Annapolis which can be determined as having been manufactured by the Spanish before the discovery of America, and in the main that fact, together with minor details, will constitute the piece de resistance to the claim of the plaintiff that he was the inventor of the weapon.

Shortly after Morse had secured his patents, the then secretary of war, Lloyd, became interested in the invention, and, on the recommendation of several boards, 2,000 stand of arms were ordered for the army after the new pattern, a contract which was never entirely filled, as the manufacturing machinery was captured by confederates at the surrender of Harper's Ferry, where the plant had been located in 1860. The suit is brought particularly on this ground, and for the further claimed infringement by the government in manufacturing that class of weapon since the war.

The coming session will also be an interesting one in another direction. A large number of suits are promised for trial in which the amount involved is not so heavy, but a novel precedent may result. Cases in which several hundred dollars are at stake have a good showing in this class, but probably the most important of the list is a claim of W. B. Isaacs & Co., of Richmond, Va. During the rebellion this firm purchased the right to gold in a number of Richmond banks, which the same institutions agreed to loan to the confederate government for purchasing supplies, when in 1865, confederate scrip was no longer a medium currency anywhere in the country. A portion of this coin had been delivered to the confederate secretary of the treasury, although as yet unused, when the plan was reached to evacuate Richmond.

On the same train with which the treasure and documents of the tottering governments were shipped south was the remaining gold belonging to the city banks, although under separate convoy. The whole affair was finally captured by union troops, and the plaintiffs ask for reimbursement on the constitutional grounds that no property of a private citizen may be taken for public use. The amount of the claim is $100,000 in round figures.

The testimony of the bank officers who figure in the case was taken by the government some time ago, and in the course of the examination it was developed that the gold for which the plaintiffs claim damages contained ingots bearing the stamp of the New Orleans mint. The latter factor is expected to prove an important facter in showing the whole to have been other than private property, and the assistant attorney-general feels confident that the government can develop a strong case of disclaimer.

JERRY PUT HIS FOOT IN IT.

Wisconsin Republicans Did Not Want the Truth.

The Secretary's Testimony in the Madison Bond Sale Case Has Caused Much Comment.

Chicago, Ill., Aug. 10.—The Hon. Jeremiah Rusk, of Wisconsin, has stirred up the biggest kind of a row among the republican leaders of Wisconsin.

William F. Rogers, mayor of Madison, Wisconsin's capital, and George Leon Bancroft, a prominent republican of the Badger state, who are stopping at the Palmer, say the secretary offended so many of the republican leaders of the state when testifying in the treasury scandal suits at Madison that it was agreed at a meeting of the republican state committee and other politicians last week that his name would better not be presented to the delegates of the national republican convention.

"Secretary Rusk, when testifying in the treasury scandal case, said that in his opinion there was collusion between the agents of the city of Madison and the prominent business men and politicians who purchased city bonds," said Mayor Rogers. The dispute is about the sale of 5 per cent. city bonds, and as the transaction took place when Mr. Rusk was governor of Wisconsin, he was called upon to testify. As the purchasers of the bonds were Lucian Hanks, a republican leader of the state; J. H. Palmer, president of the State National bank, and also a prominent republican politician, and other business men, there is no end of ill-feeling against Mr. Rusk. These men say Uncle Jerry went out of his way to infer that they had formed a combination to swindle the city when purchasing bonds.

Mr. Rusk, who arrived from Madison to-day, is stopping at the Grand Pacific hotel. When asked for his side of the story he said he did not care to discuss the matter. When he was on the witness stand he only answered the questions put to him.

OLD ENGLAND IS FOXY.

A New Move to Control Her Colonies.

More Rumors About a Revotion in Hayti.

Queen Victoria Shows Her Displeasure Towards Papers Which Publish Scandal About the Prince of Wales.

London, Aug. 10—The only government offices that show any kind of life are the colonial and the admiralty. The colonial office is giving more attention than usual to West India affairs. It is stated upon high authority, in that department, that the scheme of a West India confederation, which has been urged upon the government, has been substantially rejected in the cabinet, and the government policy will be, not to erect a separate confederation, but to unite the West Indies to Canada, by closer ties of commerce and of intercourse.

A colonial agent said to the United Press correspondent: "The government is unwilling to trust the West Indian and other colonies below North America with any greater degree of self-government that they now possess.

The pretext for this is that the population is mostly ignorant and unfit for self-government. The real reason is known to be that the people, with the exception of the aristocracy, are deeply discontented with British rule.

Belize has been vainly asking for more legislative rights, and a limitation of the despotic powers of the governor. In British Guiana the negroes are held in virtual slavery by a system of contract labor, and both in Jamaica and the Bahamas the sentiment is growing that loyalty to Great Britain will not furnish the staff of life.

The idea of the present cabinet is to make the West Indies dependencies of Canada where it is believed the bulk of population is considered to be devoted to British supremacy.

It is stated that the queen has directed that a tory newspaper which recently republished a vile article about the royal family from an obscure paper in Australia shall be dropped from the list of periodicals purchased for the royal perusal.

Many prominent conservatives and liberals have also taken this way of showing their displeasure.

It is said, that while the paper in question assumed to defend the royal family against the attack which it quoted, the real motive was a desire to hurt the feelings of the Prince of Wales, who has snubbed the social aspirations of the owner of the sheet.

Admiral Watson, commanding in the West Indian waters, has been ordered to keep a close watch on Hayti, as the latest advices from Jamaica leave little doubt of an early descent upon the black republic by the revolutionists.

The British government professes to be entirely indifferent as the ruling authority. Nevertheless all accounts indicate that no obstruction is placed in the way of Hippolyte's antagonists procuring everything they want in the way of arms and ammunition.

The Italian authorities, acting, it is said, under instructions from influential parties in England, are throwing every possible obstruction in the way of the Chilian ironclad, President Pinto, being supplied with ammunition. This is considered a most extraordinary course, and has evoked an earnest protest from the Chilian minister at Rome.

The fact appears to be that the Chilian congressional party, and their friend, Col. North, are desperate, and stop at nothing to prevent Balmaceda from being reinforced by the two war vessels For this purpose, it is said, money has been used at Lisbon, and it is now being used at Genoa.

The news of starvation in India, coming on top of Sir John Gorst's glowing presentation of the Indian estimates, has caused a painful impression, not among philanthropists only, but the general public.

It is felt that something is radically wrong, and that the Indian government has failed in its duty to provide against famine.

This, coupled with the prosecution of a native journal for reflecting on the Indian government, has made both the marquis of Lansdowne and Viscount Cross subjects for unfavorable comment. The sentence of death in the case of Manipur princes has not yet been carried out.

A dispatch from Berlin says that the rumors of the kaiser's bad health are unfounded, that his general health was never more vigorous, and that he has entirely recovered from the injury caused by his fall.

Wilhelmina, the girl queen of Holland, has received a pleasant autograph letter from the German empress thanking her majesty for the enjoyable and enthusiastic reception of the kaiser and empress in Holland. Queen Emma, the mother of Wilhelmina, got a similar letter.

WILL FORCE THE FIGHT.

Seitz to Challenge McKinley for a Debate.

The People's Party Campaign Will Be Pushed Most Vigorously—Tiffin the Headquarters.

Tiffin, O., Aug. 10—(Special)—This city during the approaching campaign will be the center of interest to the adherents of the People's party, not alone because of the selection of Hon. John Seitz as the candidate for governor, but because here will be located the headquarters of the party in the state.

The party machinery will be in the hands of Dr. H. T. Barnes, who is chairman of the state executive committee.

Headquarters will be opened within a few days, and full preparations made for an interesting canvass.

There will be no dearth of speakers and several of the most prominent, including Mrs. Anna Diggs, of Washington, S. H. Snyder of Topeka, Kans., National Organizer of the Citizens' Alliance, and others, are already here and anxious to enter upon their work.

It is proposed that Hon. John Seitz shall challenge Major McKinley to a joint discussion, and if the latter declines, as is deemed probable, then a series of meetings will be arranged for Mr. Seitz, to follow immediately in the footsteps of the republican candidate.

While much attention during the canvass will be given to free silver and other principles and policies advanced in the people's party platform, the tariff question will not be neglected, and the leaders are apparently anxious to strike at the fountain head of the pernicious idea that the people are most prosperous when heaviest taxed.

It is announced that Mrs. Diggs will speak from the same platform with McKinley at a farmers' picnic near Shelby on Thursday next, and it is claimed that she is abundantly able to refute the fallacious arguments of the apostle of protection and mono-metalism.

Gone to An English Syndicate.

Boston, Aug. 10.—All the leather board factories in the eastern states have been practically purchased by an English syndicate. The Harwood manufacturing company, of Leominster, Mass., the Moncan manufacturing company, of Kennebec, the Leatheroad company, of Boston, and Glegg & Fisher, of Lawrence, are included in the purchase. The local managers will remain in charge.

KILLED FOR POACHING.

A Tragedy on the Banks of the Mad River.

David McIlvaine Shot Down by a State Officer While Resisting Arrest.

Dayton, O., Aug. 10. — State Deputy Game Warden Buntaine, of Dayton, fatally shot David McIlvaine, who, with others, was caught seining in Mad river, in violation of the state law.

Buntaine heard of the seining party, and, in company with Ben Settner, a member of the Fish and Game Protective society, went to the spot. They came upon the party in the act of drawing the seine, and Buntaine exclaimed: "Hello boys, we got here just in time to see you make a haul."

One fisherman struck Buntaine in the eye with a stone, and Buntaine drew a revolver and shot McIlvaine through the heart. The others were then captured.

Buntaine gave himself up, but was not held in confinement as he is a state officer and according to McIlvaine's own statement, did the shooting in self-defense and in discharge of his duty.

SCROFULA

Is that impurity of the blood which produces unsightly lumps or swellings in the neck; which causes running sores on the arms, legs, or feet; which develops ulcers in the eyes, ears, or nose, often causing blindness or deafness; which is the origin of pimples, cancerous growths, or "humors;" which, fastening upon the lungs, causes consumption and death. It is the most ancient of all diseases, and very few persons are entirely free from it.

How Can It Be CURED

By taking Hood's Sarsaparilla, which, by the remarkable cures it has accomplished, has proven itself to be a potent and peculiar medicine for this disease. If you suffer from scrofula, try Hood's Sarsaparilla.

"Every spring my wife and children have been troubled with scrofula, my little boy, three years old, being a terrible sufferer. Last spring he was one mass of sores from head to feet. We all took Hood's Sarsaparilla, and all have been cured of the scrofula. My little boy is entirely free from sores, and all four of my children look bright and healthy." W. B. That Wolff's ACME Blacking IS CHEAPER than any other dressing at any price, be it 5 cents, 10 cents, or 25 cents, you can convince yourself by wearing one shoe dressed with Acme Blacking and the other shoe dressed with whatever happens to be your favorite dressing. While Acme Blacking will endure a month through snow or rain, and can, if the shoe is soiled, be washed clean, the other dressing will not last a single day in wet weather.

Your shoes will look better, last longer and be more comfortable if dressed with Wolff's Acme Blacking.

DRS. FRANCE AND OTTMAN,

Formerly of New York, now of the France Medical and Surgical Institute, Columbus, Ohio, by request of many friends and patients, have decided to visit

TOLEDO, SATURDAY, AUGUST 15th.

Consultation and Examination Free and Strictly Confidential in the Private Parlor of the Burnett House, from 9 a. m. to 9 p. m., one day only.

The doctors describe the different diseases better than the sick can themselves. It is a wonderful gift for any one to possess. Their diagnostic powers have created wonders throughout the country. The France Medical and Surgical Institute of Columbus, Ohio, is the only Medical Institute in the State incorporated with a capital of $300,000.

FRANCE MEDICAL AND SURGICAL INSTITUTE, 38 & 40 W. Gay St., one block N. of State House, Columbus, O. Incorporated, 1886. Capital, $300,000.

DRS. FRANCE AND OTTMAN, of New York, the well known and successful Specialists in Chronic Diseases and Diseases of the Eye and Ear, on account of their large practice in Ohio, have established the FRANCE MEDICAL INSTITUTE, where all forms of Chronic, Nervous and Private Diseases will be successfully treated on the most Scientific principles. They are ably assisted by a full corps of eminent Physicians and Surgeons, each one being a well known specialist in his profession.

CANCER positively cured without pain or use of the knife, by a new method.

IMPORTANT TO LADIES.—DR. FRANCE, after years of experience, has discovered the greatest cure known for all diseases peculiar to the sex. Female diseases positively cured by the new remedy, OLIVE BLOSSOM. The cure is effected by home treatment. Entirely harmless and easily applied. Consultation Free and Strictly Confidential. Correspondence promptly answered.

YOUNG MEN—Who have become victims of solitary vice, that dreadful and destructive habit, which annually sweeps to an untimely grave thousands of young men of exalted talent and brilliant intellect, may call with confidence.

DRS. FRANCE AND OTTMAN, after years of experience, have discovered the greatest cure known for weakness in the back and limbs, involuntary discharges, impotency, general debility, nervousness, languor, confusion of ideas, palpitation of the heart, timidity, trembling, dimness of sight, or giddiness, diseases of the head, throat, nose, or skin, affections of the liver, lungs, stomach, or bowels—those terrible disorders arising from the solitary vice of youth—and secret practices, blighting their most radiant hopes or anticipations, rendering marriage impossible. Take one candid thought before it is too late. A week or month may place your case beyond the reach of hope. Our method of treatment will speedily and permanently cure the most obstinate case, and absolutely restore perfect manhood.

TO MIDDLE-AGED MEN.—There are many from the age of 30 to 60 who are troubled with frequent evacuations of the bladder, often accompanied by a slight burning or smarting sensation, weakening the system in a manner the patient cannot account for. On examination of the urinary deposits, a ropy sediment will be found, or the color will be a thin or milkish hue. There are many men who die of this difficulty, ignorant of the cause, which is a second stage of seminal weakness. We will guarantee a perfect cure in all such cases, and a healthy restoration of the genito-urinary organs.

DISEASES OF WOMEN.—We have a special department, thoroughly organized, and devoted exclusively to the treatment of diseases of women. Every case consulting our specialists, whether by letter or in person, is given the most careful and considerate attention. Important cases (and we get few which have not baffled the skill of all the home physicians) have the benefit of a full council of skilled specialists. In treatment of diseases peculiar to females, our success has been marked, over two-thirds of our patients being ladies, old, young, married, single, rich and poor. Our method is entirely free from objectionable features of the general practitioner, namely, "Local treatment." We seldom find it necessary. We prepare remedies, constitutional and local, as the case demands, and instruct ladies how to treat themselves.

MARRIAGE.—Married persons, or young men contemplating marriage, aware of physical weakness, loss of procreative powers, impotency, or any other disqualification, speedily restored.

PRIVATE DISEASES.—Blood Poison, Venereal Taint, Gleet, Stricture, Seminal Emissions, Loss of Sexual Power, Weakness of Sexual Organs, Want of Desire in Male or Female, whether from imprudent habits of youth or sexual habits of mature years, or any cause that debilitates the sexual functions, speedily and permanently cured. Consultation free and strictly confidential. Absolute cures guaranteed. Medicines sent free from observation to all parts of the United States.

EPILEPSY, OR FITS—Positively cured by a new and never-failing method. Testimonials furnished.

FREE EXAMINATION OF THE URINE.—Each person applying for medical treatment should send or bring from 2 to 4 ounces of urine (that passed first in the morning preferred), which will receive a careful chemical and microscopical examination, and if requested a written analysis will be given.

Persons ruined in health by unlearned pretenders, who keep trifling with them month after month, giving poisonous and injurious compounds, should apply immediately. Delays are dangerous.

WONDERFUL CURES Perfected in old cases which have been neglected or unskillfully treated. No experiments or failures. Parties treated by mail or express, but where possible, personal consultation is preferred. Curable cases guaranteed. No risks incurred.

Cases and correspondence confidential. Treatment sent C. O. D. to any part of U. S. List of 130 questions free. Address, with postage, DR. FRANCE, Nos. 38 and 40 W. Gay St., Columbus, O.

The Mate Had No License.

Cleveland, Aug. 10.—Captain M. B. Gary, collector of customs, Saturday fined Benham & Doville, the owners of the steamer Edward S. Pease, $100, for employing as first mate Dennis Gordon, who has no license to serve in that capacity.

Fined for Obstruction.

Chicago, Aug. 10.—Captain McFarlane, of the Lehigh Valley liner Tuscarora, was fined $100 Saturday in police court for not moving his vessel from his dock when ordered to do so by the harbor master.

The captain was arrested on Friday at Chicago on the charge of obstructing the channel of the Chicago river. Two trips ago the Tuscarora lay in the draw of the Madison street bridge unloading cement at a dock north of the bridge. She completely obstructed the channel, and Night Policeman Moran ordered Captain McFarlane to move until a number of vessels blockaded at that point had passed, when he might return to his dock.

Capt. McFarlane refused to obey the order, and defied the authority of the harbor master to compel him to move. There was a war of words between him and Moran, and there it ended until Saturday, when the obstreperous captain was taken off his boat. As the Chicago river can not be navigated unless the harbor masters have authority to remove vessels blockading the channel, great interest was taken in the case by marine men.

The harbor master was fully sustained in his authority to order the removal of boats at any dock where they obstruct the free navigation of the river.

The Grain Squeeze.

Seaboard, N. Y., has the following to say of the raise in grain freights on the lakes:

Grain shippers have been defeated by their own methods, and vesselmen are reaping the benefit. The supply of boats has been so small, owing to the low rates, that when a sudden and large demand was made for tonnage it was not to be had.

That situation of affairs immediately boomed the price, and charters were effected the latter end of last week without any difficulty at 3¼, and in a few exceptional cases at 3½ cents from Chicago to Buffalo, the prices being maintained steadily.

Shippers had deferred making charters, because the rate of 2 cents seemed to them one that could not be maintained by vessel owners. The latter had sent their boats to the ore region, where the demand was considerable and the rate of freight reasonable.

When deliveries had to be made, boats could not be found, and one of the prettiest squeezes ever witnessed in the grain business occurred last week, the amount of grain caught for delivery in this manner being variously estimated as ranging between 1,000,000 and 2,000,000 bushels.

It will be remembered by your readers, that last spring, when the business was in a stagnant condition, and the rates were maintained for several weeks a cent a bushel, estimates of the cost of maintenance to the ships proved that a bare profit was possible, even at that rate—at least expenses were to be made.

From that demonstration it is easy to see that the rate of 3¼ cents a bushel leaves to the shipowner a profit that may fairly be estimated at 2 cents on the bushel, all of which will prove that the backbone which the present condition of the grain transportation has developed in the vesselmen puts dollars, and lots of them, into their pockets.

Naturally, the rate paid for grain transportation will attract a large fleet of steamers toward Chicago, and the present week will probably find the rate no higher than 3 cents, but, I believe, that that figure is capable of being maintained if the vesselowners but appreciate their power, the necessities of the grain shippers, and the amount of grain to be moved.

Broke the Record.

Two Harbors, Aug. 10.—The steamer E. C. Pope cleared from this port for Chicago Saturday with 2,781 gross tons of ore with a draft of only 14 feet 5 inches. The Pope thus breaks the Lake Superior record, made by her recently when loading at Ashland, when she took on 2,745 gross tons with the same draft.

Snags.

The steamer Burt has commenced her regular trips to Perrysburg.

Among the fleet in for grain are the Nebraska, Omaha and Penokee.

The schooner Rounds has been chartered to bring coal from Buffalo to Toledo at 25 cents.

The steamer Flora arrived to-day. She has a good list of passengers booked for to-morrow.

The Minneapolis, N col, San Diego and Red Wing have been chartered to carry coal from Toledo to Duluth at 50 cents.

The Uncle Sam took out the schooner Hoboken to-day.

The tug Butler is being caulked on Bowe's ways.

The schooners Benson and Halloran were brought in by the tug Schenck to-day.

The steambarges Whitney and Wilson are loading coal at the Hocking docks.

The schooner Wayne is at the Ohio Central for coal.

The steamer Coffinberry, loaded with ore, ran aground last night at the Ohio Central dock and was still on up to the time of going to press.

The schooner Daniel G. Fort, loaded with hard coal, was brought in by the Uncle Sam yesterday and taken to the Swan creek shutes to-day.

The steamer William Edwards, grain laden, while attempting to leave to-day, ran hard aground off the upper end of the Ohio Central docks. The combined efforts of several tugs were unable to release her this afternoon.

While leaving port yesterday the schooner Prussia, loaded with coal, grounded at the crib. She was being towed by the tug McRae, which was unable to get her off. The schooner was released later by the Schenck.

SMITH BACKS OUT.

He Will Not Live Up To the Proposition Made to the Gas Trustees.

It was announced this morning that the proposition of Mr. R. W. Smith to the natural gas trustees whereby he offered to furnish and lay 3,000 feet of 8-inch pipe at 80 cents a foot was merely a bluff and that the proposition will not be carried out.

It will be remembered it was claimed at the time the proposition was submitted that Mr. Smith was indened to make the offer in return for his receiving his bill of extras on the Bancroft street line. The proposition was such a good one that the trustees were willing to extend it indefinitely.

It now appears that Mr. Smith has sold the 3,000 feet to Mr. Kerlin, and that it will be laid under the Lafayette construction contract at $1.07 a foot instead of 80 cents. It is expected that the matter will come up at the meeting of the board of trustees to-night, and there will be music in the air.

TOLEDO COMMANDERY

Makes Arrangements To Attend the the Grand Commandery Meeting Next Month

Toledo Commandry, No. 7, K. T., has made arrangements to attend the meeting of the Grand Commandery to be held in Cincinnati, Sept. 23-24.

The Gibson house has been secured as the headquarters of the Toledo delegation, and a large attendance is anticipated.

An appropriation of $500 has been made by the commandery to meet the expenses, but besides this the members will be expected to pony up pro rata.

THAT STONE ROAD.

Commissioners and Engineers Still Squabbling.

The county commissioners this morning took up the Central avenue stone road investigation.

The engineers filed their figures and statements, accompanied by plans and drawings.

Each declared his measurements were correct, and showed just where the variation came in. After quarreling and wrangling for three hours, the difficulty was no nearer adjustment than when the board convened.

The following petition, signed by 26 property owners on the road, was submitted:

To the Commissioners of Lucas County:

Gentlemen: The attention of your honorable board has been called to the item of masonry on the Central avenue stone road improvement, and the claim made that contractors have been paid for more than they have built.

The engineer appointed by you to make measurements has made a report which we believe to be very incorrect.

We believe that we can demonstrate to you, so there will be no question of doubt, that the report is incorrect and that the claim that overpayments have been made are true. We ask that you give us an opportunity to make our showing.

A fair and honest investigation is due us, and this we demand.

You cannot make this investigatiin without going into the work in question and we ask that you name a day when you will go with us to the designated section and see the measurements.

We ask that the matter be taken up immediately if possible.

Mr. Ely proposed that the three engineers, Bodette, Meissner and Wilhelm, accompanied by the commissioners, go out on the road, select a section, dig down and make the measurements, and settle the dispute fir keeps.

About the only headway made was that the dispute was boiled down to a point as to whether the abutments include a halter or not.

Mr. Barber suggested that Mr. Ely go ahead and have the excavation made on some section, the then the commissioner fix a day to be present and witness the measurement.

Without taking any action in the matter the board adjourned until 2 o'clock this afternoon. This afternoon they adjourned until to-morrow morning.

STREET CAR GOSSIP.

The Hot Weather Booms Business on the Various Lines—Local Notes.

The street cars did a rushing business yesterday, particularly the Belt line. There is always a breeze on the belt, and many hundreds made the trip just for an outing.

Cars began running this morning on Cherry street as far out as Central avenue. This is a boon to the residents on the street.

The Consolidated is making arrangements on its Broadway and St. Clair street lines to double, and if necessary, treble its service on Labor Day.

Cars began running every 11 minutes on East Broadway yesterday, and the people along the line are therefore happy.

A conductor on a Huron street car bounced Manager Jim Robison the other day because he refused to show his pass. The conductor had an inning for a change, and Jim paid his nickel like a little man.

Manager Coleman is giving eminent satisfaction on the Robison lines. He is the right man in the right place.

It is hinted that General Manager Lang is to have an assistant, but "for goodness sake, don't say I told you."

Everything is lovely among the men on both lines just now. The men are waiting patiently for the fulfillment of promises made.

AT THE INFIRMARY.

What the Directors and Superintendents Find to Do.

A family consisting of father, mother and eight children, the oldest of whom was 13 years of age, applied at the infirmary office for assistance Saturday. They wanted to remain over Sunday and then be sent to Fostoria. Their railroad fare was paid as far as Deshler, and they were sent out Saturday night after supper.

Another family applied afterward. They wanted railroad fare to Flint, Mich. They were given passage to Monroe.

Infirmary Superintendent Wilcox and Director Reynolds went to Ravenna, Ohio, this morning to get two children who are in the infirmary at that place.

The mother is Mrs. Seigrist, wife of Seigrist who was killed in a fight at Manhattan over a year ago.

Shortly after his death the woman and children were sent to Ravenna to relatives, on the promise that they wouldn't ask anything further of Lucas county.

Some time ago the directors received notice from the directors of Portage county, that Mrs. Seigrist was unable to maintain herself and children on account of intemperate habits, and that they were being supported by that county and the expense of Lucas county. The directors will take care of the children but not the mother.

A COMPLIMENT FOR AMERICA.

Emperor Wilhelm Appreciates the Great and Growing Nation of the West.

Shortly after the maneuvers of 1889 he received our minister, William Walter Phelps, in a manner more than complimentary, saying, among other things: "From childhood I have admired the great and expanding community you represent, and the study of your history, both in peace and war, has given me particular pleasure. Among the many conspicuous characteristics of your fellow citizens the world admires in particular their spirit of enterprise, their respect for law, and their inventiveness. Germans feel themselves the more drawn to the people of the United States because of the many ties that inevitably accompany kinship of blood. The feeling which both countries entertain most strongly is that of relationship and friendship of long standing, and the future can only strengthen the heartiness of our relations."

This, I venture to say, is the most friendly language ever used by a German ruler or cabinet towards the United States, and it gains the more in value by coming from the mouth of a man who would not have said anything that he did not fully mean. The personal regard entertained for Mr. Phelps made the emperor's language perhaps more easy for him; but in addition to that, I am sure that few Germans who have not traveled in America are better informed of our conditions, our history, our resources, and our literature than he. When "Battles and Leaders of the Civil War" appeared it was read by him with interest; as an officer in the army he attended courses of lectures on our principle military operations; and only within the past few weeks he was discussing with an American George Kennan's work on the treatment of Siberian exiles.—Century.

IN THE PEN FOR LIFE.

W. J. Elliott Enters Upon His Duties as Convict.

Columbus, O., Aug. 10—W. J. Elliott was removed from the county jail to the state prison at 11 a. m., to-day. Sheriff Custer accompanied by two deputies drove him over in a surrey wagon. They took by-streets and Elliott was not handcuffed. The party attracted no attention and there was an absence of the excitement feared. Reporters were not permitted to accompany the party further than the guard room, and he was searched, stripped, bathed and examined according to the rules in Private Deputy Warden Porter's office. When asked what employment Elliott would be given he said: "That depends upon the result of his examination. If physically strong he will be put at manuel labor of some kind."

In common pleas court to-day Daniel Gosline filed action against the Toledo Electric company to recover $10,000 damages for injury sustained.

A. B. Couldwell, undertaker, fell from a tree at Point Place, Saturday evening, and quite severely injured himself.

SOME SPICY CURRENT TOPICS

Of Local and Neighborhood Interest.

Notes and Comments on Incidents Occurring Daily—Prepared for Readers Who are Hustled for Time.

Persecution of the Jews in Russia.

A meeting will be held at the Adams Street Mission hall on Wednesday evening next at 8 o'clock to hear what can be advanced on this pressing topic of the day. All interested in prophecy are desired to attend.

Distinguished Party on the Sigma.

The yacht Sigma went to Middle Bass Saturday evening, having on board Col. S. C. Reynolds and a party, who spent Sunday at the islands. Yesterday afternoon the yacht made a cruise about the islands, having on board Secretary of the Treasury Foster and a number of other distinguished visitors at the islands.

Local Railroad Conductors.

A meeting of the Brotherhood of Railroad Conductors was held at Emmery hall yesterday afternoon, Grand Chief Conductor Howard presiding. It was reported that during the past week five new divisions had been organized. A number of new members were taken in the local division. The Brotherhood is moving along.

The Death and Burial of Joe Smith.

Saturday a young man named Joe Smith, who has been in the employ of Kerlin Bros. as foreman ever since the pipe line started, was buried from St. Vincent's hospital. His was a sad story, although perhaps not different from hundreds of others who die in that institution. His family are prominent people of Columbus, but he seems to have been somewhat of a black sheep. His friends were notified by Mr. Kerlin, but none came to the funeral. The hospital and funeral expenses were paid by Mr. Kerlin and a few friends.

Nellie's First Excursion from Toledo.

Notwithstanding the excessive heat yesterday, the new steam yacht Nellie took a very pleasant party to the lake in the afternoon, and a most enjoyable time is reported by all. The party was composed of Mr. and Mrs. John Weber, Mr. and Mrs. James Hustin and family, Mrs. H. C. Whipple, Miss Emma Weber, Miss Flora Weber, Messrs. Casper and Gustave Weber, John Cherry, C. F. Wall, M. J. Carney, Rich Fuller, Charles Hanner, Wm. Cranston, Wm. Wernert, Theo. Minniker, H. Preston, George Stoilz, and H. J. Van Buskirk.

Dr. Eyman Will Leave on Thursday.

Dr. H. C. Eyman, the recently appointed superintendent of the Clevaland insane asylum, has forwarded his acceptance of the position to President R. K. Paige, of Cainesville, and owing to the fact that the Chesher people have all left the asylum it will be necessary to enter upon the duties at once. Dr. Eyman, with his wife, will therefore go to Cleveland on Thursday and formally take charge of the institution. The appointment of Dr. Eyman is received with favor in all parts of the state, and a satisfactory administration on the part of the doctor is confidently anticipated.

Otherwise Gunckel is Truthful.

Hear this good people of Toledo, on Jno. E. Gunckel, from this morning's Sandusky Register:

Mr. J. E. Gunckel, of Toledo, the popular city passenger agent of the Lake Shore, dropped into the city yesterday for a Sunday visit and autographed at the Sloane. He didn't spring any very large fish stories this trip, but told about walking several miles around the beach at Cedar Point for recreation and to see just where the largest fish could be located. Gunckel is a thoroughbred piscatorian. Otherwise he always tells the truth and is a very affable gentleman.

New Paper for Uncle Sam's Obligations.

A circular has been issued by the treasury department giving notice of a proposed change in the quality of paper to be used for Uncle Sam's obligations as soon as present stock is depleted. The new paper is described thus:

"The paper for United States notes, national bank notes and certificates is a cream white bank note paper. Its distinctive feature consists of localized red and blue silk fiber incorporated in the body of the paper while in the process of manufacture, so placed as to form a perpendicular stripe on either side of the center portrait or vignette of each note and other obligation."

Yacht Lulu Sunk.

A jolly party went to Gard Island on the yacht Lulu yesterday, but the pleasure of the trip was to a large degree spoiled by the sinking of the yacht on the return. When starting out the yacht struck a sunken pile near shore, off the ice houses this side of the Wheeling bridge. She was considerably damaged, but did not leak and went on out into the bay. On the return, however, she struck the same pile, tearing a big hole in her side, which caused the yacht to sink immediately. The water was not deep, and the party was gotten off in safety. Among those on board were Messrs. Rollin Potter, Jay Potter, Harry Brown, John Mettler, Bern Brough, George Brailey, John Hodge, Bert Bissell and Arthur McKinnon.

Booths for Election Purposes.

On Saturday afternoon the board of elections opened and rejected all bids for the erection of election booths for Lucas county.

A resolution was adopted instructing the secretary to request Graff M. Acklin, of Toledo; L. P. Hazley & Co., of Cincinnati; R. A. Curran, of Cleveland, and T. K. Plumbly, of Buffalo, N. Y., to erect a sample booth on the premises designated by the board within 10 days from that date. The board agrees to purchase all booths thus erected upon a basis of the bids submitted on Saturday.

This action was taken that the board could become more familiar with what is most required in the emergency, the task being a new departure. As there are 67 booths to be constructed the matter involves no small sum.

Local Foresters to Invade Maumee.

Toledo Foresters will take possession of Maumee to-morrow night. The new court, named "Fallen Timbers," embracing about fifty charter members, will be instituted by the executive council.

Liberty Conclave Knights of Sherwood Forest and the Foresters' band will attend in a body.

A special train has been chartered and a big crowd is going from Toledo.

High Chief Ranger Southard last Saturday night instituted a court at Ravenna, O. He was assisted by courts Lillie, of Gerard, and Palmira, of Palmira, O. This court begins life with 50 charter members. Mr. Southard reports Forestry booming in that section of his range.

Large Excursion Business Yesterday.

Yesterday was a great day for the excursion steamers out of Toledo, and more people spent the day on the water than any previous day this season. The unbearable heat drove almost everybody out of the city, but, from reports, they did not get much relief on the water, as there was but a very slight breeze on the lake.

The business done by the Presque Isle steamers was immense, and that pretty park was about the coolest reached by any of the steamers.

The Idlewild carried her full complement of passengers to Detroit and Belle Isle, and the City of Toledo had all she could carry for Put-in-Bay. Among the passengers on the latter were about forty members of the Cycling club with their wheels. The Wallace and Burt both took large crowds up the river for a day at quaint old Perrysburg and Maumee.

Turners at Point Place.

The steamer Wilson had a very nice crowd of people yesterday for Point Place. She carried the members of the Toledo Turnverein and sweethearts to their annual basket picnic, which was in every way one of the most enjoyable occasions this well known jolly society has had for a long time. Ladies present were Miss Lilly and Lucy Schultz, Lucy Purpos, of New Bremen, O.; Rose Mendelsohn, Lena and Helen Jentzen, Minnie and Emma Zerk, Cora, Anna and Kitty Conlisk, Carrie Wolf, Gusty Meyer, Minnie Folger, Mrs. Eells, Mrs. Sansanbaceer and Misses Stehl, Bighter, Schlipp, Salm, Nolzenbach, Kratt and French. The gentlemen were: Messrs. David, Peter and John Wege, Wm. and Martin Kratt, Wm. and Albert Schlipf, Charles Nilhaur, Wm. Hubert, A. Schintzel, J. Glantz, L. Weibber, F. Rausch, Chas. Stager, J. Schultz, Hy Jentzen, H. Dickman, R. Ahrndt. They arrived home about 9 in the evening and by the looks of them everybody enjoyed themselves to their hearts contents.

The Cleveland Asylum Change.

Yesterday's Cleveland Plain Dealer has the following relative to the change at the Newburg asylum, which contains some wholesome truth:

Gov. Campbell and the trustees of the Northern Ohio Insane asylum deserve great credit for their prompt action in changing the superintendent of the asylum. No sooner were the charges filed with the governor than he forwarded them to the board of trustees, with instructions to investigate them. The evidence was heard and the board immediately made the change. The members of the board are all business men with one exception, and the entire board is composed of able men of irroproachable character. Their prompt action indicates an intention to conduct the affairs of the institution for the benefit of the unfortunates confined there to the entire satisfaction of the community.

The difference between democrats and their opponents was highly illustrated by the fact that when an official of the people fails to performs the duties imposed they have no hesitancy in promptly dismissing him, no matter whether he be democrat or republican.

Dr. Eyman, the new superintendent of the asylum, has been many years first assistant at the Toledo asylum, and is a gentleman of many accomplishments, an expert in insanity and has the thorough confidence of the medical profession as well as of all those who have come in contact with him.

THE FOURTEENTH RAIDED

By a Squad of Cadets from Toledo—A Jolly Day at Marion.

Yesterday morning at 6:30 a squad of nine of the Toledo Cadets left over the Hocking Valley road for Marion where they went to call on the members of the Fourteenth regiment between whom and the Cadets a strong feeling of friendship exists. On arriving at the camp, which is beautifully situated about a mile and a half out of the city, the boys at once paid their respects to Lieut. Colonel Fletcher, commandant of the camp, and after a pleasant chat were by him turned over to Capt. Bailey, of Co. "A," "Pugh Videttes." Co. "A" is the crack company of the Fourteenth and are composed of some of the plesantest gentlemen in the regiment.

At two o'clock the squad was invited to dine, which invitation was modestly accepted. The dinner, prepared by the famous cook of the "Videtts," was something far in advance of ordinary camp fare—such things as stewed chicken, sweet corn, tomatoes, water melon, celery, ice cream, cake, et cetra.

The balance of the day was passed in visiting the ladies of the "Videtts." At 5:20 the boys bid good bye to their hospitable entertainers and left for home, declaring that as entertainers as well as for numerous other virtues, Col. Fletcher, Captains Everett and Bailey and the Pugh Videttes certainly held the right of the regiment.

The Cadet visitors were Sergeants Irvine, Welbon, Middaugh, Goodall, Corporal Raymer and Privates Smith and Phillips, accompanied by Mr. Art Burdick. The Junior Hussars, of Columbus, and a battery of Louisiana light artillery were also visitors at the camp during the day.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Marie Gugger is visiting in Buffalo.

Harry Ashley and sister went to New York, Saturday night.

Mr. C. T. Johnson is home, after a week's absence from the city.

F. B. Losee left for a two weeks' trip through eastern states.

James Pilliod went to Wauseon this morning on legal business.

Col. S. A. Court and wife are home from a two weeks' trip down the St. Lawrence.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Brown, of Lowell, Mass., are visiting Mrs. Brown's brother, J. T. Greer.

Mr. and Mrs. Michael Lyons returned home last evening from a six months' tour of Europe.

A. F. Robb and wife left this morning for Hamilton, Canada, where they will visit for two weeks.

Mr. Fred Puck, Mr. Phil. Schmidt and a company of ladies left this morning on the Idlewild, bound for Mackinaw.

The Misses Maggie and Lizzie Furey have returned from Detroit after a week's pleasant visit with friends in that city.

Messrs. Day and Bainbridge, owners of the steam yacht Spray have been spending a few days at Monroe, with the yacht.

Chief Engineer Chris. Wall, of the fire department, will attend the national convention of fire chiefs, in Springfield, Mass., this week.

LABOR UNION NEWS.

The Iron Moulders Elect Delegates—Arrangements for Labor Day.

Saturday night the Iron Moulders' union elected the following delegates to the Central Labor union: Chas. Furey, A. V Marshall, James Boyle, Casper Zimmerman and Jas. C. Burt. The union is making arrangements to turn out in a parade on Labor Day.

Saturday the joint committee on Labor day arrangements met and appointed some committees. Those desiring privileges will address A. Smith, Missouri street. The Typographical union will have charge of getting up souvenirs and invitation cards.

The Hod Carriers' union is preparing for Labor day. At the meeting of the union Saturday night it was announced that the union will withdraw from the federation of labor and join the international association of hod carriers.

The German Carpenters' Union at their meeting Saturday night discussed the matter of turning out in the parade on labor day and arrangements to that effect will be made. Quite a party of the members were initiated.

Joan of Arc Assembly K. of L. has decided to join the basket picnic which will go to Put-in-Bay on the City of Toledo on Labor day. The girls are making elaborate arrangements for the event.

A Questionable Pursuit.

Complaints are made of a band of baking powder tramps whose tricks upon unsuspecting housekeepers seem to partake very much of the nature of confidence operations. The band is composed of women, although employed and directed by an agent of the other sex, and their method of procedure as explained by several ladies who have been victimized, is as follows: Obtaining access to the kitchen, they introduce the subject of baking powders, inquiring the kind used in the family and volunteer to "test" it to ascertain its qualities. Their "test" consists in placing the can on a hot stove or over a lamp or gas jet or in mixing the baking powder with water both hot and cold. If the baking powder is good for anything, the heat will, of course, expel the leavening gas, which is apparent to the sense of smell, and has a faint, aromatic odor. The claim is then made that this odor indicates something detrimental, although, as a matter of fact, a baking powder that would give off no gas when subjected to heat would be without leavening power and valueless. Of course, the object of these alleged tests is to destroy confidence in all other kinds of baking powder and to sell the particular brand for which the women are traveling.

It is a fact that the baking powder which these alleged "testers" are trying to introduce was shown by the recent official tests to contain both lime and sulphuric acid, the result of impure material from which it is made, besides being inferior in leavening qualities. The result of using such a baking powder must be impure food.

The only way to protect our food from being contaminated by tramps of this kind is to turn all persons who wish or attempt to tamper with it unceremoniously from the door, and to use those articles, only which experience has proved satisfactory, or the official tests have established as pure and wholesome.

With but few exceptions the stores included in the Chief's order were closed yesterday. It is not yet known what action will be taken with regard to the offending citizens

FINANCE AND TRADE.

The market quotations in the Bee are compiled from United Press special dispatches and from reports received by the Toledo Produce Exchange, and specially arranged by Mr. Denison B. Smith, secretary of the Exchange.

OFFICE OF THE TOLEDO BEE, TOLEDO, O., Aug. 10.

London wheat markets firmer, held higher; corn quiet. Weather unsettled. English country markets firm, French turn dearer. Liverpool wheat firm; corn firm and dearer.

The receipts of wheat at seven principal western points to-day are 889,698 bu., as compared with 441,498 bu. on the same day last year.

Bradstreet's Report of Exports.—Exports of wheat (and flour as wheat) from both coasts of the United States have increased fully 25 per cent. within a week, equaling 4,030,000 bu, a weekly aggregate unrivaled since July and August, 1887. In the first week of August, 1890, the total (even including Montreal's exports) was 2,166,000 bu; in 1890 it was 2,056,000 bu, and in 1888, 2,271,000. For five weeks of the new cereal year we have exported 14,000,000 bu of wheat (and flour as wheat), against 9,700,000 bu from the United States and Canada in the like period of 1890, 8,000,000 bu from the United States in the five weeks in 1889, and 9,800,000 bu in 1888.

The New York "Financial Chronicle" reports gross earnings of 54 roads for the fourth week in July increased $131,334, or 6.71 per cent.

Business failures in the United States and Canada for the week were 231, against 247 the previous week, and 208 for the corresponding week in 1890.

Erie canal freights are firmer at 3¾@4c wheat, and 3⅝c corn and rye, Buffalo to New York.

Official Estimates of Yields in Iowa.—Winter wheat, 20⅞ bu; spring wheat, 14⅜ bu; winter barley, 25 bu; spring barley, 28 1-6 bu; winter rye, 20 bu; spring rye, 18⅞ bu; oats, 29¼ bu; hay, 1½ tons.

Stocks in New York gave evidence of improved strength on Saturday.

The receipts of wheat to-day at seven principal western points are 538,401 and in excess of the corresponding Monday in 1890.

The export clearances yesterday at four Atlantic ports were again large, and aggregating 733,772, bu wheat, and light in flour and corn.

English markets as quoted herein are firm for wheat without change in price. Corn a shade better.

The visible supply of wheat increased last week 1,186,000 bu., corn decreased 73,000 bu, oats increased 31,000 bu. In the corresponding week in 1890, wheat increased 117,000 bu, corn decreased 462,000 bu, and oats decreased 271,000 bu.

The shipments of wheat last week from India equaled 1,440,000 bus. Previous week 1,200,000 bus. Since April 1st the beginning of the crop year, to August 8th, 27,180,000 bus compared with 10,500,000 bus in the corresponding period in 1890.

The huge crop propogative in this country may, like the hunted fox, double on their tracks ere long. The official estimate of Wisconsin's yield, as printed Saturday, is 15 bu. Iowa's estimate of spring wheat is 14 bus and a fraction. Spring wheat is the principal crop. The extract from the Market Record printed herein makes the outlook for unmatured wheat in North Minnesota and Dakota quite doubtful, and which we sincerely deplore. Our people are too nervous and impatient. There is too much information. There is a great surplus of crop reporters, as well as of many other kinds of reporters.

There is a great competition in this crop reporting, and the wildest guessing is the best with the crowd. The evil of it is, we send all those excessive estimates abroad to load down their markets and depress prices. Conservative opinions are at a discount. We shall produce a good round crop of good wheat, but the 185,000,000 we may export in the crop year will be needed abroad, and we cannot but think at better prices than the present. If we put up the price of our goods we shall sell just as many. July 4th, New York had in store 1,062,231 bu. of wheat, and Saturday last in store and afloat, 424,131 bus. The interior has accumulated, as all points were bare, but where exporters have had a chance at it, there are no accumulations.

Mr. French, secretary of the Farmers' Alliance in Kansas, says the farmers will hold their wheat to a large extent. Toledo can accommodate the Kansas farmers with storage room for eight millions bushels.

The grain markets of this country are working in a line very much to the satisfaction of the friends of wheat and corn. We can again report strong markets and a substantial advance in prices east and west. In New York August wheat closed at $1, a gain of 1⅝c. September at 89⅝c, a gain of ⅝c. The feature is, east and west, the shop demand for August. Corn was also dearer. In New York August closed 70c, a gain of 1⅛c, September at 67⅝c, a gain of ⅞c.

In Chicago the August futures advanced to 91⅛c and closed at 89⅝c, a gain of ⅝c. Sept. at 89⅝c, a gain of ⅝c. August corn at 62c, a gain of 1⅛c; Sept. at 59c, a gain of ⅞c.

In Toledo the market for wheat futures has been tolerably active and very firm. Opening prices were at an advance of ⅝c, and with some fluctuations within narrow limits another ½c was gained at the close on August wheat. December delivery had more friends than other futures to-day. At the close August was 1⅛c, September 1⅛c and December 1⅛c over Saturday's close. On the call cash No 2 soft sold at 91⅝c to 92c; August at 92c to 92¼c, and December at 94½c to 94⅝c.

After the call August sold at 92 and closed at 92¼. September sold at 91¾ to 92⅜ and closed at ¼. December sold at 94½ to 95⅜ and closed at 95.

Cash wheat was wanted and all the offerings were absorbed. Prices are higher. No. 2 soft commenced at 92c and left off at 92⅝c, a gain of 1⅛c. No. 3 soft at 91⅛c. Rejected No. 1 at 88⅛c; No. 1 white at 93c; No. 2 white at 92c; wheat and rye at 87c.

Corn—Very little doing; No. 2 at 63c; No. 4, at 61c. Oats—No. 2, about 30c; No. 2 white, 34c. Rye—In active demand at better prices; No. 2 at 77@77¼c; No. 3, at 73½@74c; rejected, at 71c.

Clover seed—More active; October at $4 40; December at $4 45@4 50.

SUMMER MEETING.

Of the Bay View Driving Park Association.

The summer races of the above association will take place at Bay View Driving park, nine miles north of Toledo, near Erie, Mich., beginning next week, Tuesday, August 18 and closing the 21. The association has hung up purses amounting to nearly $5,000, which has brought out the largest field of fine horses ever known in this part of the country, there being 90 horses already entered in the different classes.

Arrangements have been made with the railroads to run a train from the Union depot every afternoon, leaving about 12:30 and returning in the evening after the races.

Boiling Hot Weather like the present should start every man, woman and child to Presque Isle. The shade is delightful, the lake breezes healthful. The Pastime will run to the lake every night this week, stopping at Presque Isle both ways.

LATE ADVERTISEMENTS.

A resident of Ohio shot and killed by a state officer for poaching is something new in the history of the state.

Heat and drouth are beginning to adversely affect the crops of northwest Ohio. Farmers are hustling to get oats out of the way of chinch-bugs and grasshoppers. Denizens of the cities are sweltering, but Lake Erie breezes still blow up the Maumee and make Toledo a delightful summer resort.

The people's party are going into the Ohio campaign hammer and tongs—beg pardon, plow and hammer, we should say. The outlined plan is a challenge of McKinley by Candidate Seitz to defend his tariff platform, and a general canvass of the state against the doctrines [illegible] ism. The people appear to know what hurts them.

There are indications that the home government of Great Britain will oppose all the movements of its colonial dependencies towards confederations. The establishment of the confederation of Australasia has been postponed, if not defeated, by representatives of the interests of the crown. The scheme of a West Indies confederation will be nipped in the bud. It is not unlikely that these repressive measures will have a contrary effect from that intended. The fullest measure of independence in its home affairs appears to be a not unnatural demand of a successful, self-supporting colony. To deny this may be the road to its ultimate absolute independence.

Major McKinley begins his defense by defining the tariff as "a form of taxation taxing the property of other nations seeking a market in the United States." Of course the property is sent here to be sold before it is taxed, and the tax is collected at the custom houses. There it is paid by the importer, and it thus becomes a part of the cost of "the property." Last of all it is paid back by the buyer of "the property," the American consumer. Major McKinley does not do well to begin his campaign arguments with statements as easily analyzed as this one. The people are no longer in the infant class in the study of economics. They have had object lessons on the tariff in which their pocket-books were involved. They have a practical knowledge of who pays the tariff tax, and they can be no longer befooled by theories which are founded on a misstatement of facts.

The Citizens' Republican association has issued a lengthy address to the people of Pennsylvania, defining its revolt against the Quay-run machine of the party, in which it speaks of the methods of republicanism in the state as follows:

The citizen has sometimes been cajoled, sometimes deceived, sometimes conciliated; but the process of perfecting the machinery of the political organization for the convenience of its clever artificers has gone steadily forward.

The people in the state who believe in the party, and that it can be reformed, are asked to join the association and engage in the work. The appeal was issued on Friday last, on which day Boss Quay was in Pittsburg, stopping at a hotel without registering, and "seeing" certain people. The next day every republican paper of Pittsburg came out for Blaine, who is now recognized as the Quay-Cameron candidate for 1892. The machine is evidently in good running order, and the association must make a hard fight, if any. The democracy of Pennsylvania has its opportunity and is in good shape to make the most of it.

PRESS CENSORSHIP.

All the morning newspapers of New York city except the Tribune and all the evening papers except the Post and the Mail and Express are under indictment for publishing an account of the last electrocutions in that state. Inasmuch as the best way to secure the repeal of an obnoxious law is to enforce it, this is very satisfactory. The law making executions in New York secret has been enacted, and in the executions at Sing Sing every effort was made to observe it, even to the establishment of a dead line around the prison, beyond which the newspaper reporters could not go. Yet with few exceptions the New York press secured and printed full and detailed accounts of the proceedings. For this they are indicted and will stand trial, making the defense that the law is unconstitutional.

The law is at least a distinct violation of the judicial system that has prevailed in the United States since its establishment and in Great Britain since George III came to the throne. With the close of the reign of his predecessor many liberties were secured to the people. Of one of these Macauley says: "The state ceased to exercise a censorship over the press, and the censorship of the press over the state began." And again, dwelling upon the higher tone that from that time prevailed in parliament, he says it was because "In the galleries of the two houses sat the reporters, the fourth estate of the realm." From that day to this English speaking nations have recognized the dignity of the press and its usefulness in upholding the liberties of the people, in showing up the abuses which but for the light turned upon them by the press would have been enacted in dark places.

It has become one of the glories of Great Britain and the United States that no judicial proceedings are secretly conducted, but that the methods of the administration of law and justice are open to the observation and criticism of all the people. It is this fine tradition of the common law that was forgotten when the New York legislature provided for secret executions. It is in defense of this time-established right the New York papers have deliberately laid themselves liable to prosecution.

While this matter is before the people is perhaps a good time for them to consider how far government interference with the business of publishing is to be tolerated or encouraged. We have had during the present administration one interference with the circulation of a book through the mails, in which the postmaster-general decided the book must be proscribed. The Kreutzer Sonata, in the form of a novel, dealt with some profound physiological and psychical questions. It was not light reading, and did not appeal to the average novel readers. Had it been left alone, it would have reached only the class of readers to whom it appealed and who would have been benefitted by its reading and in turn benefitted others.

After Mr. Wanamaker gave it the free advertisement of excluding it from the mails people of all classes rushed to buy it, it was sold on the streets, sent out by express, and generally circulated. Thousands read it only to be disappointed in finding it was not erotic nor vulgar. This is what ignorant press censorship accomplished in one instance. Are we to have more of it? And if it shall be established who shall define its limits? To whose wisdom shall be delegated the task of deciding what the infant intellects of the American people may receive as mental food? Certainly not the postal authorities who allow the writings of Zola, and Ouida, and of hundreds of inferior writers of the same schools to pass muster and exclude Tolstoi. Shall the state go into this business at all, which with all free peoples government was supposed to have outgrown?

And if the manner and methods of the execution of one law are to be hidden from the people why not other judicial proceedings? The press should not abuse its privileges, but the people cannot afford to see it robbed of its liberties.

The exposure of corruption on the part of Canadian office-holders, in connection with the Canadian Pacific railroad affair, is having one good effect. It is found that official depravity is not all on this side of the dividing line. Many of the politicians and officials of the United States have been mixed up in corrupt speculations and practices directly to their discredit and indirectly to the disgrace of the nation, and in consequence heretofore both in England and in Canada the finger of scorn has been pointed at our institutions. The investigation now in progress at Ottawa is besmirching the reputation of more than one of these critics of our affairs, and this is felt to be one of the deepest stings of the disgrace. The Pall Mall Gazette says: "Political life in the United States is not particularly pure, but we would be considerably surprised if the Canadian record would be beaten." The saddest phase of the Canadian affair is that it seems likely to involve the fame and cloud the reputation of the leading statesman who lately died with an honored name on which it was believed no stain rested.

Grave Oversight.

The People's party platform makes a clean sweep. If it failed to take in one or two things it was because of a lack of time to write the planks. It wants the government to run the saloon business, buy up the railroads, go into the banking business and run the telegraphs. Among the things it neglected to include is base ball and the Sunday school picnic. This is a grave oversight.—Steubenville Gazette.

John Sherman.

With the close of his present term of office John Sherman will have been in the public service for thirty-eight years without interruption. His salary for the entire time aggregates about $190,000, but if anybody estimates his present wealth at that amount, minus the cost of living for thirty-eight years, he doesn't appreciate the opportunities that have come to Honest John.—Chicago Times.

Legitimate Fruit.

The scandal at the Cleveland insane asylum, which has just resulted in the decapitation of the superintendent, is the legitimate fruit of the pernicious idea that the charitable institutions of the state are the proper prey of the party that is in power and that the welfare of the unfortunate inmates is a secondary consideration.—Columbus Dispatch.

A Conundrum.

The "People's Party" ought to answer this conundrum: If the farmers have a right to corner their wheat or other products, why haven't other people an equal right to corner farm products if they can? We don't deny these rights to farmers; we only ask why other people have not equal rights to do the same thing.—Dayton Journal.

Several Sides to Questions.

Mr. McKinley says the farmers of Ohio do not want to "sell a full bushel of wheat for a short dollar." Nor do they want to pay a full dollar for a short dollar's worth. Nor to sell a pound of wool for short McKinley prices. There are several sides to most questions, as Mr. McKinley may realize in November.—St. Louis Republic.

Life not Barren of Joy.

Ingalls will sail for Europe August 22, but life in his absence will not be altogether barren of joy. Columbia will draw Tommy Reed to her bosom and be consoled in the absence of John James.—Philadelphia Record.

New National Life.

With the return of democratic strength we have gained a new national life which, if maintained, will make it possible for the democratic party to obtain and keep the control of the national destinies for a practically indefinite time.—N. Y. Daily News.

Hailed With Joy.

A good crop year is always hailed with joy by the Republican leaders for two special reasons: To harvest it diverts the attention of the people, and when harvested there is that much more for the politicians to tax.—N. Y. World.

Foraker Has the Lever.

The Big Four of Ohio are having a merry time tearing at each other's throats. Boss Foraker seems to hold the lever and is ready to switch the train off of the track any time things don't go to suit him.—Plain Dealer.

Make a Note of This.

The Ohio democratic canvass will be in about September 1, and the campaign of education that educates will then open. Those who wish to inform themselves will make a note of this.—Dayton Times.

Who Was the Abettor?

The fraud by which a democratic member of the state board of equalization was deprived of his seat, has not been sufficiently exposed. Who helped to conceal the stolen goods?—Portsmouth Times.

More Platform Than People.

The great difficulty with the Ohio People's party is that it has more platform than people.—Washington Post.

Good Enough.

Kentucky repeats with emphasis that the old democratic party is good enough for her.—Springfield Democrat.

WAS HIS LIFE A FAILURE?

Handsome Bayard Saville in a Prison Cell.

He Swindled the Shrewd ex-Senator Fair.

After Forging a Letter of Introduction from ex-Secretary of State Bayard the Rest Was Easy.

San Francisco, Aug. 10.—Ex-Senator James G. Fair, that exceedingly shrewd man of many millions, has been victimized by a reckless swindler to the tune of $500, and the "smooth" man, Bayard Saville by name now reclines in the "tanks" of the city prison with a felony charge opposite his romantic name and kicking himself because he didn't do the mining magnate out of as many thousands.

On July 15 Saville presented himself to James G. with a letter of introduction and recommendation, purporting to come from Fair's old friend, ex-Secretary of State Thomas F. Bayard, of Wilmington, Del.

Saville informed the ex-senator that 10 years ago he studied law in Mr. Bayard's office. The two pleasantly discussed many subjects connected with President Cleveland's cabinet officer. The following day Saville requested Mr. Fair to indorse a draft for $500 on the Security and Safe Deposit bank of Wilmington, where Saville said he had several thousands on deposit.

Mr. Fair did so and the money was obtained at the Nevada bank.

The draft was sent east, where it was at once protested and returned to this city. Mr. Fair was called upon, and was obliged to hand over $500. He at once communicated with Wilmington, and in answer received a letter saying that the letter of introduction was a forgery and asking him to have Saville arrested if possible.

The detectives on the case found that Saville had visited the Hotel Rafael, San Rafael, in company with a woman, and registered as Mr. and Mrs. John Quigley.

Later Saville returned to San Francisco alone and was arrested on Journey street, but the money was all gone. He was charged with obtaining money under false pretences.

Saville makes no denial of his guilt says that he will make no contest. He admits that he forged the letter of introduction and says that no one but an expert could tell that it is not genuine.

Ten years ago, according to the prisoner's story, he studied law with the then Senator Bayard, but later went into commercial life and had commission houses in New York and London.

Seven or eight years ago he married a beautiful society lady in New York to whom he was much attached. Subsequently his wife's health failed and his business ventures left him impoverished.

Two years ago he met "Lucky" Baldwin in New York and told him of his distress. He told Mr. Baldwin that the only chance there was to save his wife's life was to take her to the southern part of California.

Mr. Baldwin became interested, and in October, 1890, furnished the means for the couple to come west. They went to Baldwin's orange orchard in Los Angeles county, and the husband worked day and night to care for the invalid.

A few months ago he came to San Francisco and was employed by Mr. Baldwin to work in the billiard rooms.

This fact he concealed for a few weeks until he got word that his wife was dying. Mr. Baldwin furnished him money to go to her, and he devoted himself to her care until June 4 last, when Saville's wife died, leaving him heartbroken and poverty-stricken.

"I came back to this city," said Saville, "but was not able to do anything. I was wifeless, homeless and in debt. In sheer desperation I committed this crime, and, of course, I will go to the state prison for it. But what does it matter? A man who has lost everything may as well be in one place as another," and the big, handsome prisoner drew his hand across his eyes as the trusty locked the cell door behind him.

FLOWER AND FRUIT MISSION.

Another Good Work Started by Trinity Church.

The following is for the kind, noble hearts of Toledo: Their patience is asked for the "Ys and its few plain thoughts." The guild-rooms of the Trinity parish building held last week a new band of workers, (some of Toledo's well-known society young ladies in the number.) They will be seen hereafter on each Wednesday morning starting in different direction, two by two, to "Homes, with a capital H," to the sick rooms in the "close, stifling attic and alley, and to any who may be in need of cheering sympathy and a little of the sunshine God means for all." The Flower and Fruit Mission will be most grateful for all donations of fruits, flowers, delicacies for the sick and reading matter, such as magazines, pamphlets, etc. These may be delivered at the guild room of Trinity Parish building on every Wednesday morning, from 9 to 11:30. Any case of sickness reported to the mission or the Rev. Charles Scadding will be visited by members. Have you my, friends the rememberance of an illness, your own, or of one dear to you? If so there arises before you the picture of a quiet shaded room brightened by love and care, and comforts. Do you know what illness without these means? Have you ever watched the last hours of one, nursed it may be, once, as tenderly as your loved one, with no look of love, nothing, bright or hopeful or comforting as the soul waits for its last struggle with the earthly temple to pass on into the boundless one of eternity. Look but once and you will ever remember. Stand in the "hospital wards and look into faces scarred by pain, by accidents and disease. Oh! my friends, even a kind look of sympathy from the outside world, the simple presence of a gentle, fearless woman, the flowers and fruit and the periodical or bright story, do you not think they shorten somewhat the long, tedious nights and days, and make the pain more endurable? Have you seen muscles drawn with pain relax into a smile of glad welcome, and seen a heart somewhat hardened by the cruel world, grow softer at one kind word of sympathy? The hearts of Toledoans are kind and warm—if they will but pause and look—we shall not again have to remind them of the young women who will gather on every Wednesday to be dispensers of cheer, so far as kind hearts help them.

Cool, But Not Collected.

It is understood that McKinley would like $40,000 from Pennsylvania manufacturers to help him in Ohio. Asking so big a sum as that is certainly cool, but it's not collected.—Philadelphia Times.

Somewhat Remarkable.

It is remarkable that high-tariff Pennsylvania should want Reciprocity Blaine. Possibly Mr. Blaine's magnetism blinds the Pennsylvanians to the perils of free trade.—Courier-Journal.

Turns the Screw Tighter.

The last ten years of high protection has reduced the value of Ohio farm lands $57,000,000. And McKinley's bill turns the screw several turns tighter.—Wheeling Register.

Never Won Any Votes.

Spite isn't going to defeat Gov. Campbell. It will take a big pile of votes to do that, and spite never won any votes.—Sandusky Journal.

Looks that Way.

Maj. McKinley observes that the danger of overconfidence among the Ohio republicans is fast passing away. It looks that way.—Boston Herald.

Lost in the Shuffle.

If Gen. Alger's boom was visible at all at the Grand Army encampment it got lost in the shuffle.—N. Y. Telegram.

AT THE SEASHORE.

Some Toledo Folks Who Paid Compliments to Mr. Rutherford.

Quite a number of Toledoans are summering at Seabright, N. J., a pleasant resort on the Atlantic coast just above Long Branch, with the ocean on one side and the Shrewsbury river with its far-famed oyster beds on the other. Sandy Hook stretches off to the north and the kindly gleam of the twin lights on the Highlands is a near neighbor. A. F. Rutherford, who formerly had charge of the club house at Middle Bass, is proprietor of the Rutherford Arms, the most inviting hotel at Seabright, and this is perhaps why Toledo people have wandered that way this season.

Among the most recent guests at the Arms were Miss Ada Ritchie, who spent part of her days in New York, where she was studying physical culture; Chas. C. Warren, who formerly operated a spice mill in this city, but now resides in Brooklyn, and builds electric railroads; Mrs. Keith, nee Anna Rutherford, known better to Toledoans by the latter name; she has left the operatic stage where she had a brilliant career; also Tom Hamilton, who has returned west and is now at Middle Bass; Mrs. Dr. Bergen and her sisters, Misses Cook and Lalor; Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Stevens, Geo. W. Stevens and others.

While the season at the seashore resorts has been an unprofitable one as a rule, Mr. Rutherford has done surprisingly well and is quite encouraged. He has a lease for two more years.

A PRIEST IN DISGRACE.

Serious Charges Against Fr. Mailluchette.

He Was Arrested in Detroit for Trying to Elope With the Wife of Another Man.

Detroit, Aug. 10.—Father Mailluchette, a priest in Tilbury Center, was arrested in the Michigan Central depot of this city Saturday just as a woman named Mrs. Royal Thibert was about to rush into his arms. The woman was also escorted to the Central police station but she and the priest were released because there was not sufficient evidence against them.

The aggravating point about the affair is that the priest only four weeks ago performed the ceremony which united the woman to Royal Thibert. She was housekeeper for the parish clergyman up to the time of her marriage. The couple went to Kansas City to make their home, where they were soon visited by Priest Mailluchette. While on this visit the priest's conduct did not meet the approval of the master of the house, who pitched his spiritual adviser out in an unceremonious manner.

Thibert's wife disappeared and was followed to Detroit, where she met the priest. Two tickets to Providence, R. I., were found upon the priest's person and he coolly turned them over to Thibert and his wife and asked them to take the trip.

A MERRY QUARTET

Of Toledo Girls Depart This Morning After Canadian Barons.

This morning a merry quartet of Toledo girls, Misses Alta Beard, Emma Nicklet, Jennie Jones and Carrie Beatty, started on a pleasure trip that will be quite an undertaking for four young ladies unattended. They left on the Idlewild for Detroit. At Windsor they will board one of the steamers of the Montreal Transportation company and proceed by water to Toronto, stopping at the various points of interest enroute. From Toronto they go to Montreal via the Richelieu line, leaving the boat for a time on the Welland canal to visit Niagara Falls. Returning from the Falls they proceed to Kingston through the Thousand Islands, and the rapids of the St. Lawrence, reaching Montreal Saturday night. They will be the guests of Miss Beatty's uncle, George Beatty, for ten days, after which the party proceeds to Quebec. They will return by another route. It is surmised that the young ladies, having left all Toledo in the lurch, have thoughts of ensnaring Canadian barons or other titled personages in the matrimonial net as a side issue to the trip.

WAS BOILED TO DEATH.

Awful Death of a Workman at Findlay.

He Fell Backward Into a Vat of Boiling Water and Quick Lime Saturday.

Findlay, O., Aug. 10.—Fleming Hardwell, employed at the Salem Wire Nail mills, met with a terrible accident Saturday, which resulted in his death.

He was engaged in the wire-drawing department, and in some manner his feet slipped and he fell backward into a vat of boiling-hot water and quick-lime.

He was helped out of his horrible bath by his fellow-laborers as quickly as possible, but not before his entire body had been terribly scalded. He had been completely immersed, with the exception of his head. He was removed to a neighboring house, and as his clothes were taken off his cooked flesh fell off in great chunks.

Every thing possible was done for the injured man, but his condition was too serious to hope for any relief, and his sufferings were ended by death. The man was about 26 years old, unmarried and had been here only three weeks, having come here from Salem, where he was employed by the same company.

WARN WILL RETURN.

The Ex-Bank Cashier Negotiating for the Settlement of His Affairs.

Arrangements are being made to-day whereby M. C. Warn, ex-cashier of the Merchants National bank, may return to Toledo. For several weeks he has been writing to friends in the city, and it appears has settled all his personal accounts and the only thing remaining to be negotiated is the account due the National Union.

This afternoon, the trustees who represent the National Union meet with some of Mr. Warn's friends with the view of effecting a settlement. One of the gentlemen interested said to a Bee that he had no doubt but that Mr. Warn would return to Toledo. He is at present in a southern city and holds a fairly good position. His running away at the time he did is looked upon as a foolish freak rather than any criminal intent to defraud. His many friends will be glad to learn of his proposed return.

NEWS FROM THE EARTHQUAKE.

Hunters Tell of the Latest California Sensation.

Yuma, Ariz., Aug. 10.—Cocopah Smith, an American trapper, accompanied by Gardner, a hunter, and Espito, Cocopah Indian, have returned from the Gulf of California, and give additional details concerning the earthquake and tidal wave of Thursday last.

About 6 o'clock that morning a heavy shock struck the country about five miles below Lerdo, a colony in the state of Sonora, Mex., on the Colorado river.

The sky darkened and a thunderstorm arose accompanied by great flashes of lightning. The river rose as a huge wave from the gulf was driven inland, and corrals, fences and landing places were washed away by the rushing waters.

The shaking of the ground increased, and the crackling, grinding noise of the crumbling hills was intensified. A second shock caused the earth to open in many places, some fissures being from four to seven feet wide and from 20 to 30 feet long, and seemingly fathomless.

The men were thrown to the ground by the force of this shock. About a mile from Lerdo they notice a fissure in the middle of the river bed into which the Colorado was pouring with much noise.

A third shock of earthquake destroyed three small habitations of colonists and cracked the remaining ones. No human beings were lost, but a large amount of live stock was killed.

HOUSEKEEPERS ARE WARNED against the impositions of a company of females, who, under the lead of a male agent, are now infesting the kitchens of this city, performing a trick which they pretend is a test of baking powders.

It having been intimated that these persons are the paid agents of the Royal Baking Powder Company, this is to advise all concerned that this Company has no relation whatever to them, that their so-called test is a sham, and that the females are instructed and employed to perform these tricks and make false statements in all kitchens to which they can gain access, by concerns who are trying to palm off upon housekeepers an inferior brand of baking powder through the operation of fallacious and deceptive methods.

The Royal Baking Powder Company in no case employs such agents, and whenever the name of this Company is used to gain entrance to houses, the applicant, no matter how respectable in appearance, should be regarded and treated as an imposter.

BOLD ROBBERS AT DELTA.

Longnecker Again the Victim of Thieves.

Three Tramps Enter His Store and Fit Themselves Out for a Trip to the Sea Shore.

Delta, O., Aug. 10.—(Special)—This morning clerks opening the large clothing hall of Mr. J. M. Longnecker, of this place, found it had been visited by burglars during the night and an immense amount of plunder gotten away with. An entrance was made through a rear window and thence through the office of the Oval Wood Dish company to the clothing room. Over one hundred suits of clothing were scattered over the office floor from which they made their selection.

In the pile was hats, neckties, collars, shirts, cuffs, overcoats and clothing of all kinds. Besides clothing they got away with several dozen of handkerchiefs, three trays of jewelry, satchel and some loose change, amounting to $4, left in the drawer. The old clothing left in the store shows that they were tramps. They are supposed to be there in a gang, and the sheriff is a ready on their tracks, as they were seen going north about 3 o'clock this morning. Messages have been sent to all parts. This is the second burglary Mr. Longnecker has had in two years. Mr. Longnecker is at Lakeside.

WILL WELCOME ALL.

Odd Fellow Committees Appointed for That Purpose.

The encampment of Odd Fellows, which opens on the 18th inst., promises to be an event of more than ordinary interest. The subordinate bodies, at the request of the committee on arrangements, have selected these committees to assist in the work of entertainment:

Reuel Encampment, No. 250.—M. L. Neiman, W. W. Earl, O. A. Winfred, B. A. Kruege, J. D. Ried, Thos. Dale, J. Klag, jr., John Albrecht, W. J. Albrecht.

Toledo Encampment, No. 118.—C. F. Holden, P. M. Gress, William Frazer, G. W. Humphrey, Henry Bower, J. C. Meissner, John Murphy, H. McLeary, I. Lippert, Thomas Ward.

Toledo Lodge, No. 402.—H. B. Pomeroy, Owen Blackmore, J. F. Aris, J. M. Ritchie, E. Bateman, R. G. Bateman, William Frazer, John E. Hampton, E. A. Richmond, C. B. Gifford.

Wapakonica Lodge, No. 38.—A. W. Boardman, George Hill, F. S. W. Cook, F. Krieger, George Rickets, W. H. Spoor, F. H. Mienen, R. C. Spohn, E. Scott, William Gerlach.

Robert Blum Lodge, No. 413.—Casper Algier, Alex. Antretter, Fred Yung, Fred Dankert, John Tallman, William Stahl, George M. Lauer, Carl Steinmueller, William Konker, Marx Carl.

Maumee Valley Lodge, No. 515.—Henry Neel, J. C. Meissner, M. V. Koehrman, L. Winfield, F. C. Boettscher, J. K. Schmidt, Fred Raitz, John Lang, S. H. Calish, J. Geleerd.

The visiting Daughters of Rebekah will be looked after by the following ladies: Mesdames D. C. Hight, M. Bartlett, Geo. Stough, Robt. Burge, John Valentine, G. H. Stinekamp, Reuel Hawkins, J. M. Chilcote, C. M. Feilbach, and Miss Schomburger.

All committees will meet at Odd Fellows' temple next Monday evening.

INTERNATIONAL POSTAGE.

A Favorable Outlook for Ultimate Success.

Washington, Aug. 10.—Captain Brooks, superintendent of foreign mails, has just returned from Vienna where he was in attendance as a delegate to the international postal convention.

There were, he says, delegates present from every civilized country in the world, except the Transvaal and Natal. Captain Brooks believes that by the time the next convention, which meets here in 1897, is held, that every civilized country of the globe will be in the union.

The principal event of the Vienna convention was the admission of the Australian countries. They agreed to come in on October 1 of this year, provided the international postal rates are not reduced. They claimed that they could not stand a reduction.

The present rate between this country and Australia is twelve cents and from that country to this, sixpence a half ounce. Under the union the rate may be anywhere from five to ten cents a half ounce.

This country will at once reduce the rate to five cents. Australia may keep its rate at ten cents, but it is likely it will reduce it at once to five cents. Washington was made the next place of meeting.

HON. JOHN SEITZ.

The candidate for governor nominated by the people's party in Ohio may be termed an all-arounder. He seems at one time or another to have belonged to every political party that has been organized in the Buckeye state.—Philadelphia Record.

Certainly Cobb would be a good name for a farmers' candidate. But Seitz was finally selected, which probably means that "sights" of things are promised, "sights" of things are to be undertaken and "sights" of greenbacks are to be issued.—Cleveland World.

The state convention of the Ohio third party cannot be convicted of being dull or uninteresting. On the contrary, it fairly bubbled over with attractions from start to finish, and at times the assemblage was really amusing. The convention nominated for governor Hon. John Seitz, a gentleman who contracted peculiar and unique views on the money question as early as 1875, and who has persistently and consistently held aloft the old greenback banner since that date. Mr. Seitz's specialty is "cheap" money, and it is presumed he represents that element on the ticket.—Washington Post.

Dr. Eyman Instead of Chesher.

The trustees of the Cleveland insane asylum have removed Superintendent Chesher and appointed Dr. H. C. Eyman, of Toledo, to fill the place. Dr. Eyman has been physician at the Toledo asylum for some years and his appointment to the superintendency at Cleveland is an excellent selection. He should have been appointed in the first place instead of Chesher.—Mansfield Shield and Banner.

STILL IN IT.

Although Badly Wrecked the Uncle Isaac Company Is On Deck.

The members of the Uncle Isaac company that opens at the People's theater this evening has recovered somewhat from the effects of the West Shore wreck last Thursday. Although a number of people in the same coaches were killed, none of the company were badly injured. All their scenery, wardrobes, wigs and musical instruments were destroyed. New costumes have arrived from New York, however, and a number of Toledoans have helped them out with instruments, etc., and a first-class entertainment will be given this evening. The company has hard luck in losing so much early in the season, and they deserve large houses here to put them in good spirits again.

The Source of Rivers.

Most people have probably heard the story of the house in Ohio, which is said to be so exactly balanced upon the boundary line between the basins of the great lakes and the Ohio river that the rain falling upon one side of the gable roof goes to join the St. Lawrence and ocean, while on the other side it helps to swell a little brook that finally mingles with the Ohio and the gulf. There is a more wonderful place than this in India. Almost 500 miles due west of Calcutta is the Ammerkantak mountain, where is a place of great sanctity in the eyes of the Hindoos, owing to the remarkable fact that it is the source of one of the large rivers of India, and of feeders of three other rivers that are among the greatest in the peninsula. The torrents that flow down its sides travel to all the cardinal points of the compass. The Nerbudda, which takes its rise here, winds its way over 800 miles of plain before it empties into the Indian ocean. The three other great rivers that are fed from Mt. Ammerkantak are the Godavery, the Mahanuddy and the Sone.

The natives of India have a great reverence for the sources of a number of their largest rivers, whose waters, by means of irrigating works are often used in times of drought to nourish the soil and prevent or mitigate famines. The Godavery, the most important river in South India, takes its rise in a brook that issues from a hillside near the village of Nassik. The spot where this brook gushes from the rock is approached by a flight of 690 stone steps, at the top of which is a great stone platform, built at the foot of the rock from which the stream issues. An image under a large canopy has been so placed that the water pours out of its mouth and then goes sparkling down the hill. From this spot the stream flows 900 miles across the peninsula, growing on the way into a mighty river and draining 120,000 square miles. The source of the Godavery is one of the sights of the Bombay presidency. Mr. W. D. Cooley, the English geographer, made a curious blunder about the head stream of the Luapula river, which unites with the Lualaba to form the upper Congo. The stream is the Chambesi, which empties into Lake Bangweolo. Cooley, misled by the similarity in the names, thought the Chambesi was the upper waters of the Zambesi, and it appears on his map as a part of the Zambesi system.

One little stream whose waters flow from river to river, until finally they join the Amazon, runs for ten or fifteen miles by the side of one of the sources of the great Paraguay. Though they flow parallel to each other, and only two or three miles apart, they run in opposite directions. Canoes are often hauled across the intervening portage, and in this way it is possible for a small boat to travel from the mouth of the Amazon to Buenos Ayres along the inland waters of South America, and with a portage of only two or three miles.—Goldthwaite's Geographical Magazine.

Whether one believes in the doctrines of Henry George or is inclined to lean Bellamywards he knows that the fundamental bottom of all investment is land and that which is built upon land.—N. C. FOWLER.

From eighty to ninety per cent of all sales of lands and houses, and of all intents to buy or build begin in the minds of the to-be purchasers during the season of the year when business relaxes, giving time to consider home and home comforts. Summer is pre-eminently the time for buying land and planning for building houses. Your business is slack. You have time to rest, and the mornings and evenings are delightful. When is there a better time to look at property and think of owning your own home, and when thinking of this, and of the best part of the city in which to build, your thoughts will naturally turn to

Special Low Prices on Pianos at THE WHITNEY-CURRIER CO.

Inasmuch as we have not moved our place of business for more than twenty years the expense incident to tearing up and removing every two or three years has been saved. This enables us to give lower prices, better bargains and better goods than any migratory concern who uses the necessity for "moving" as a pretext for offering sham inducements. We shall continue through July and August, this year and next, to offer extraordinary inducements to buyers of pianos and organs to patronize our house. We sell the best pianos made, acknowledged and recognized as such, as well as commoner grades, such as offered by our competitors. Our price, when grade and quality is considered, is lower, by far, than has heretofore been offered by any Toledo dealer or agent.

REST.

I said to the weary trav'ler
As he wandered along the road,
"Where is the rest you'd love the best
To lighten your heavy load?"
And his eyes were dim as he answered,
"The sweetest of rest to me
Would be the sight of a face to-night
To smile on my misery!"

I said to the fond young mother,
With her baby at her breast,
"Oh, mother mind, where do you find
Your sweetest time of rest?"
And she spoke, in a soulful whisper,
Through tears that she sought to hide,
"For rest I sit, when the lamps are lit,
With baby by my side!"

I said to the blushing maiden,
In bridal garments dressed,
"Oh, loving lass, where do you pass
Your ideal time of rest?"
She looked at her fond young husband,
And sank in his embrace dear,
And said the while, with a happy smile,
"The sweetest of rest is here."

I said to the weary preacher,
As he watched his erring flock,
"Where do you go, when grief and woe
Loud, loud at your portals knock!"
And he laid his hand on the Bible,
That lay on the table near,
And said, "When life with pain is rife,
The sweetest of rest is here?"

I said to the aged pilgrim,
Fast tottering to the grave,
Oh warrior grim, with the eyesight dim,
Where, where is the rest you crave?"
And his voice was weak as he answered,
"The rest that I long to trace
Will come when breath is lost in death,
And I see my master's face!"

For several years the California Chinese engaged in the fruit business in a small way, but this season they have gone into the larger districts and have proved a decided thorn in the side of the white dealers. Their presence as buyers instead of laborers has aroused the bitterest opposition from the whites, who declare that the Chinese will ruin the reputation of the California fruit trade.

The Canadian goverment has received information that, owing to the great promise of the crops in Manitoba and the Northwest, the Canadian Pacific railway company has ordered 50 new locomotives and 1,500 box cars to transport the season's harvest to the seaboard. It is estimated that it will require ten trains daily for seven months to move the crop.

Vergennes, Vt., is the third oldest city in the United States, having been chartered in 1788. Hartford and New Haven, Conn., were chartered in 1784. Vergennes is probably the smallest and most quiet city in the country, having a population of 1,773, and covering only 1,200 acres. Nevertheless, it has a mayor, a city council, a board of aldermen and all other officers pertaining to a full-fledged city.

A man who is in the business says: Over a dozen kinds of cement are made which will unite the broken ends of glass and china, and one is about as good as another. The easiest and cheapest to prepare is made by taking two ounces of pulverized white gum shellac and a half an ounce of gum mastic. Soak them together in a couple of ounces of sulphuric ether, and add half a pint of alcohol. After the whole is dissolved, the preparation is ready for use.

Near Dayton, Ga., there is a well locally known as the "well of frozen air." In drilling the well a stratum of frozen clay and gravel was encountered at a depth of 55 feet. After passing through five feet of this numerous cavities were encountered, from which the cold air comes in gusts. The escape of the air from the well can be heard roaring for nearly two hundred yards. A bucket of water set over the opening will freeze through and through within a few hours.

A peculiar case of increase in coal consumption is reported from France. An official engineer, having been called to investigate the cause of a considerable augmentation of the consumption of fuel by a large battery of boilers, discovered that the phenomenon was due to the presence of water in the smoke shaft. The measures which were taken to exclude the water have resulted in the saving of 16 per cent. in the annual coal bill.

In his early days Russell Sage used to settle the claims against a small railroad which was operated in the western part of Pennsylvania. One day one of the trains killed a fine cow belonging to a wealthy but misery farmer. Mr. Sage got himself up to look like a tax assessor, and, driving up to the farmer's house, said: "What do you value that red cow of yours at?" "It's not worth over $15 to any one," said the sly farmer. "Well, here's the money," said the supposed assessor. "My road killed the cow this morning."

A new use for foxes has been found in Sable island, which has exemplified in its time several curious vicissitudes of animal population. The island is as overstocked with rabits as New Zealand itself. These animals were introduced at the beginning of the century for the benefit of the life-saving staff, which constitutes the whole population of that wreck-strewn island. Once the rabits were exterminated by castaway rats, and again by a flock of arctic owls. A third time the rabits were introduced, and now have so increased that there will be no grass left for the cattle and ponies unless something is done. It has now been decided to import a number of foxes, with the hope that they will keep down or kill off the rabits without themselves becoming a nuisance.

MIDDLE BASS ISLANDS.

The Pleasures of the Summer Hours.

Toledo People Who Mingle With the Throng and Listen to Joyous Lake Ripples.

Middle Bass, Aug. 10.—(Special)—Since Sunday the people have been evacuating the island in flocks. Every boat that goes out takes a few of the members and their friends away, some to their homes and others to larger and gayer (but no more beautiful) resorts than Middle Bass. To make things even worse than missing the familiar faces scarcely any new ones have arrived, so it can easily be seen that Middle Bass life is not in a whirl of mad excitement, although every-one here seems to be having the best of a good time.

The last few days have been perfectly beautiful. There have been no heavy winds and the water has remained as smooth as glass, which has been taken advantage of by those fond of rowing.

If there are any unfortunate individuals in Toledo at present who are afflicted with the "blues" and who think life is not worth living, just let them come down here for a week and I will guarantee a sure cure.

To thoroughly enjoy it one should rise quite early, get a good book, and repair to the grove. Find a comfortable place to seat yourself and where you can look out on the water. Of course you are going to read that book, but all the same in a few minutes your eyes glance up involuntarily, and presently you find yourself wondering if any artist living could reproduce on canvas such coloring as you see before you. That soft, beautiful blue stretching away to the horizon, here and there dotted with an island or some big vessel moving slowly along through the water, and above you a sky of the same delicate tint with a few white streaks that relieves the monotony. Your thoughts wander away and you sit there perfectly unconscious of a very busy practical world not very many miles away, for perhaps and hour and then with a deep sigh you awake from your day-dreaming and wonder if you have been in fairy-land. Do you not think it is worth trying? I do, most emphatically and not only once but many, many times. It is at such moments that one's better nature shows itself and the scene with all its good effects will be stamped on your memory indelibly, and in after years you can close your eyes and live over again the same few happy moments.

During the day there is always something to do—rowing, sailing, a trip to Put-in-Bay, Ballast Island or Wehrles, bathing, in fact, a thousand things, and although nobody pretends to exert himself here, there is always something being done.

Perhaps the prettiest part of the day is the sunset. Every one goes out in front of the club house immediately after supper, to see the sun go down into the lake. The great ball of fire seems to take pleasure in amusing us all, for every night he finds some new way of partially hiding himself with clouds and the coloring at times is gorgeous beyond description.

Every evening there is dancing at Rehburg's hall and the happy young people seem never too warm to follow with light steps the enchanting music of the orchestra. On week days the music stops at 10:30 but on Saturday, the gala night, the dancing is kept up till midnight.

Thursday night the following party from Cleveland arrived on board the steam launch Nahma: A. J. Stone, J. J. Brooks, jr., Benedict Crowell, F. B. Sanders, E. O. Gordon, C. F. Sturtevant, R. F. York.

Mrs. C. E. Burke, Miss Jessie Burke and friends arrived Thursday from Cleveland.

John D. Martin and family arrived from Lancaster, Thursday, and are occupying their cottage.

Vice Commodore Herman Klauser and Captain Charles Klauser paid the Island a visit on Wednesday.

Mr and Mrs F P Isherwood arrived here on Wednesday. Mr Isherwood is one of the few early risers and he greatly enjoys his before breakfast walk about the island.

Professor Wolff has added a drum to his orchestra which greatly improves the music.

Judge R S Tuthill and family of Chicago arrived on Wednesday.

S M Fuller and wife arrived from Norwalk on Wednesday.

Mrs W S Dodge, Miss Taylor, Miss Stocking, Miss Stone, Mr and Mrs A L Stone and Mr L D Dodge returned on Wednesday to Cleveland.

The Toledo arrivals during the week were: Mrs. F. L. Geddes, Mrs. W. Williams, Marshall Bell, Gertrude R. Hardee, Perla G. Bowman, M. A. Scott, Adolph Brand, F. J. Scott and wife, W. H. Scott, Mrs. Howard Chapman, Edward Mitchell, E. E. Dwight and wife, Judge J. W. Cummings and wife, Dan Cotter, Dr. Helen M. Steen, Jennie Vallette, Walter Chase and J. T. Newton.

The table at the Club house is excellent this year and the guests are loud in their praises of the management.

The directors of the Middle Bass club are contemplating putting fire escapes on the club house building. Mr. McDonald, the public building inspector of Ohio, visited the island on Thursday.

The Le Roy Brooks, in backing up from the Put-in-Bay dock, broke her piston rod on Friday, which will disable her for a few days. The Ina and the Trio will take her place between Put-in-Bay and Middle Bass.

The revenue cutter Perry arrived yesterday afternoon at anchor off the Middle Bass club house dock and will stay here until the arrival of Secretary Foster.

Mr and Mrs W S Dodge arrived yesterday afternoon from Cleveland.

J Warren Keifer arrived from Springfield yesterday.

Mrs Geo F Russell, Miss Russell, George F Russell, jr, Fred W Peckham, of Toledo, and W R Galliger, of San Francisco, spent a few hours at the club house yesterday.

THE LOCAL Y. M. C. A.

What the Boys Are Doing in Athletics and Otherwise.

The field day of the Y. M. C. A. athletes has been postponed until Saturday, Aug. 29. There will also be another field day later in the fall. Members of the committee will be on the grounds Monday, Wednesday and Saturday evenings, and members wishing to practice will always find a full attendance on these evenings.

A special outing committee has been appointed as follows: Orris Jones, Henry Kahlo, John S. Raymond, Sam Aldrich and Karl Groweg to act in connection with W. S. Daley and A. S. Bement, the gymnasium committee.

House cleaning is in progress at the association building to-day and things are pretty much torn up. Quite a number of repairs are to be made to make the rooms bright and cheerful for the winter months. Some of the departments will necessarily be closed for a short time.

During the summer the building is open week days from 8 a. m. to 9:30 p. m., and on Sundays from 2 to 6 p. m.

The Sundays in August are being devoted to lessons from the life of Simon Peter. August 16 the subject will be "A Stupendous Failure;" August 23, "With Simon's Chief Creditor;" August 30, "Success at Last."

The athletic grounds are open to senior members afternoons and evenings. Every Saturday afternoon all members are urged to be present and impromptu games will be arranged if there is no ball games with some outside club.

A series of educational lectures by prominent citizens are being arranged.

Junior members are entitled to the use of the grounds Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday mornings from 9 to 11 o'clock. Lacrosse and general athletics will be the program.

Notwithstanding the warm weather the attendance at the Sunday meetings keeps up in an encouraging manner.

The want of more towels in the bath rooms is to be supplied.

THE SILVER DOLLAR.

Interesting Figures About the Coinage of the Big White Wheels.

The entire coinage of standard silver dollars by our mints from their creation until July 1, 1878, was inly $8,573,500. The weight of the subsidary silver coins was reduced 28 1-2 grains to the dollar in 1853 to keep them in circulation, as the full silver dollar had more value to be melted and sent to Europe as bullion, where the ratio was one of gold to 15 of silver. From 1840 to 1878 the silver dollar was a curiosity, and although a unit of money in a certain sense, it was not an exclusive legal tender, as both metals were lawful money. Whatever coin there was in the country from 1840 until 1861 was gold and subsidary silver. If silver had been the only legal-tender money during that period, and a creditor should have demanded payment in standard silver dollars to the amount of $1,000, the debtor could not have found them in the country. In 1837 the gold in the eagle was reduced two-tenths of a grain, but it had no effect upon the drift of the metals; 15 ounces of silver would buy one of gold in Europe, and, very naturally, silver would not stay here, where it took 16 ounces of it to purchase one of gold. So now, if the United States should proceed to offer free coinage in the ratio of 1 to 16, or 15.98, when the market price of the two metals is as 1 to 20, the silver, as the cheaper metal would hasten to that country where it would have greater value, and the gold would go to Europe, where it would be worth more than here.

There were no silver dollars of 412 1-2 grains coined in the United States of any consequence from 1834 to 1873, because the value of the silver dollar in gold, a legal tender also, ranged from 101 to 105 cents; and no man would take 101 or 105 cents worth of silver to a mint and get 100 for it. So, if the free coinage of silver should come no one would take 115 cents worth of gold bullion in silver and get a legal-tender gold dollar. The human being is not constituted in that way; consequently, unless the commercial nations agree upon a ratio for the coinage of both metals, that which offers more for silver bullion than all the others—that is, free coinage on the basis of 412 1-2 grains of silver as the equivalent of 25.8 grains of gold—will have the silver, and others will have the gold.—Indianapolis Journal.

Woe to the Conquered.

The Romans cried "VAE VICTIS!" "Woe to the conquered!" at their triumphs. To-day many of us are being conquered — our peace, our rest and daily appetite wrested from us by that invader of the stomach, dyspepsia. Succor we sue for from a hundred sources. Temporary relief we sometimes obtain. But a hearty meal, the simplest indiscretion in diet, and the Protean imp returns with redoubled vigor to torment us. A persistent use of the great anti-dyspeptic and regulating tonic, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, is best calculated to drive into permanent banishment every form of indigestion, temporary or chronic. No less efficacious is it for malaria, biliousness, constipation, rheumatism, kidney and bladder ailments. This remedy of specific utility and many uses overcomes them all. 'Tis a safeguard, too, against the effects of temperature apt to revive an attack of "La Grippe."

SEALED PROPOSALS WILL BE RECEIVED by the undersigned up to 12 o'clock at noon of Monday,

THE 17th DAY OF AUGUST, 1891,

for improving Union stret from the south line of John street, to the north line of Woodruff avenue, by grading the same its full width to the established grade and providing the necessary drainage, culverts, etc.

The contractor or contractors who shall do the work herein provided for shall be paid for that part of the improvement lying in the street intersections in cash within ninety days after the acceptance of the work, and the remainder of the cost will be paid in an assessment levied upon the abutting property in two installments, one half in ten days after the passage of the assessing ordinance and the remainder in one year thereafter.

All bids must be written with ink and the price of each item shall be written out in full as well as in figures. Each bid must contain the full name of every person interested in the same. All parties filing bids for the matters specified in this notice must deposit with the city clerk on each bid the sum of one hundred dollars. All deposits to be in cash or certified check on a bank doing a regular banking business in the city of Toledo, and accompanied by an agreement signed by the bidder and two disinterested persons, guaranteeing that if the bid is accepted a contract will be entered into—otherwise the amount deposited to be forfeited to the city; and in case a contract is entered into, said deposit to remain until first estimate of work done (or double the amount of deposit) is reported to the Common Council.

Bidders will be required to indorse their names on the outside of the envelope containing their proposal, and what the bid is for, the same to be filed with the city clerk. Bids not filed in accordance with the above requirements will be rejected.

Blank bids and envelopes can be obtained of the undersigned or of the city civil engineer.

Bidders must specify the time within which they will commence and complete the work after the acceptance of their bid.

Plans and specifications can be seen at the office of the city civil engineer.

The council reserves the right to reject any or all bids.

By order of the council.

PIONEER SKETCHES,

(New Series.)

By Dr. H. Scott, of Lancaster, Ohio.

No. 56.

Pioneer Notes.

Eighty years ago, and for a number of years after the settlement north of the River Ohio began, the extensive plains, called prairies, were annually burned over from as far south as the second and third ranges of counties clear through to the lakes, and embracing the vast and famed Sandusky plains. These fires took place for the most part in the fall, after the rank growths of grasses became dry from the effect of frost and the suns of Indian summer weather, then so common every autumn, and when the forest leaves had mostly fallen. The grasses of the wild condition of the country grew very tall, especially the blue bent, which was everywhere so abundant, but now about extinct. These conflagrations were called burning prairies; or prairies on fire.

The fire got abroad from different causes, as from clearings, from the camp fires of movers or hunters; but it was also supposed that the Indians burned the planes over to facilitate the chase. When the fires were started there was nothing to hinder them from sweeping over the whole country, if not checked by rain or beat out by the settlers. In the incipiency this was sometimes done by the massing of forces, but if the wind suddenly sprang up the flames often got away from the fighters. The means used to put out the fires was that of whipping out. Brushes were used by striking backward blows towards the burnt district, and when the fire was working through low grasses or the timbered lands. When the danger was iminent, whole settlements of men, women and children turned out and worked by system, sometimes all night, and were often successful in putting out the fire. But when the flames were driven by a gale through the blue bent fields, the sheets of fire rose above the tree tops, and the roaring was heard many miles away.

If there were heavy clouds over the burning prairies their illuminated under surfaces were seen at sight at long distances, even a hundred miles. When the Sandusky plains were on fire we saw the light in Greene county, 80 miles to the south. The light was low down on the horizon. The result of these extensive fires when continued for many days was to load the atmosphere with smoke, so dense at times as totally to obscure the sun in the clearest weather. There were many days together, and even weeks, when the sun was never seen, and when the eye could not peer beyond three or four yards. It was common to call this kind of weather "Indian summer."

The early settlers had a method of protecting their little plantations from the danger of the burning pairies, which was that of a burning belt of 50 or more yards wide all around. This was done on calm days and the fire whipped out when a safe width was burned over; but the experiment was dangerous in view of the sudden winds that sometimes sprang up; and instances were not wanting where the flames escaped and ran riot over the country. And there were instances where fences, and hay stacks, and even cabins were consumed with their contents, and the family beggared. Lives were also lost by being smothered with smoke, or caught by the flames; for when the fire was in the blue bent, and the wind high, its speed was frightful; and it was dangerous to be abroad in front of one of these furious fire storms. Some imagined the fire traveling faster than a horse could run. The blue bent grass, on rich soil, and where there was no timber, sometimes grew to the height of from six to ten feet, and very thick on the ground. It hid persons on horse back, and if a flock of deer were bounding through it only occasionally a white tail could be seen.

The sweeping of the fire over the plains, annually, killed the young growths of oak and other timber, leaving the root to send up other sprouts the following season, to be in their turn burned off; and thus in time these roots grew to large size; but when the burnings ceased saplings grew from them; and when in following years the land came to be cleared, these immense growths of root being sound and chunky, proved formidable obstacles in the way, and received the name of "nigger heads."

In about 1820 these growths were from ten to fifteen feet in height, and so dense on the ground in some places as to make it difficult to ride or walk through. They were seen everywhere on grounds once barren, or prairies. The same growths, where they have not been cleared away, are now considerable trees, and are readily recognized by old persons who remember their history. They are largely of the various varieties of oak, but are interspersed with other woods. They vary in size according to the vigor of growth, but are all of nearly the same age.

A HYPOTHETICAL CASE.

Mr. Blaine's Physician on the Management of Mental Depression.

Dr. J. M. Taylor has just contributed to the University Medical Magazine an article entitled "Hints on the Management of Mental Depression." The article is a suggestive one in connection with the present reports regarding the condition of Dr. Taylor's patient, Mr. Blaine, and we cannot but think that he hat that distinguished gentleman much in mind while writing.

We suspect that something of his case is embraced in the following account of "young Mr. B—," of whom, after some preliminary history of excessive devotion to social duties Dr. Taylor says: "The other factors in this young man's case might be said, in brief, to be an inherited tendency to gout, which showed itself in excessive uric acid and in acid dyspepsia. There was also, probably as a result of all these things, an increasing sleeplessness, a worried sense of responsibility which led him to feel that he was getting behind in his daily routine and unable to keep up; finally, an exaggerated notion that he might, at any moment, be ill and unable to fulfill his engagements, and the also exaggerated conscientiousness that if he should so fail others would suffer for his neglect. Finally, on two or three occasions a feeling of faintness came on in the street or elsewhere, naturally suspected to be cardiac, and presently there was established a wretched, nervous fear lest he might break down at any moment of some great responsibility and disgrace himself. This went on until he was practically unfit to even attempt the continuance of his old life. Then came the extreme mortification of confessing himself beaten. This superadded chagrin to incapacity and all was colored by a Spartan desire not to let it be known how he felt. Then I assure you that this young man's condition was most pitiable."

The writer proposes to give some hints on the treatment of hypochondriasis and mental depression, but as a matter of fact he simply shows us that such cases have to be managed rather than treated. The patient needs a person of fact, intelligence and energy, and one who is not a personal friend or at least an intimate. All these facts are very well known and have often been dilated upon, and Dr. Taylor presents the story anew in an interesting manner.—N. Y. Medical Journal.

Something About Sound.

Here, however, is something you may never have heard. Did you know that many deaf persons are so sensitive to the vibrations that the sound waves make that they can tell almost as well as we, for instance, when the bell rings.

Then when two people who are walking together cannot always hear the same thing. Sometimes one man can hear the most delicate sounds and high notes and be deaf to those that are low, while the other man may only hear the low, deep sounds and notes and never hear the delicate sounds at all.

It all depends on the power to receive the vibrations that come.

People who go up in balloons tell us so many things about sound. They say that one sound after another fades away, just as when we sail away from a shore one object after another fades from our vision.

The last thing we see as we sail is, of course, a high building. But what do you suppose is the last thing they hear in a balloon that rises over a crowded city?

Not the noise of wagons, not the voices of men, but the voices of little children! How strange that seems! To me, who love little children so much, this is something I like to think about in many ways. Can you understand why?

Have we any truly great men at the present day? Some doubt it, and ask to be shown the modern Washington, Franklin, or Webster. However this may be, of one thing we are sure, there never was a greater blood purifier than Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

FARM AND GARDEN.

Experiments on the Feeding of Hogs.

The following is a summary of experiments made by the Illinois experiment station at Champaign during the years 1888, 1889 and 1890:

In eight trials in which corn only was fed, aside from salt and coal slack, pigs varying in average weight from 65 to 290 pounds and kept in pens of small lots without grass, gained at the rate of from 10.46 to 14.73 pounds per bushel, 56 pounds shelled corn, the average gain being 12.36 pounds. The rate of gain for food eaten, and the food eaten in proportion to weight decreased after four to six weeks feeding with corn only. The corn eaten per day varied from 3.41 pounds eaten by pigs averaging 65.58 pounds to 10.71 pounds, eaten by pigs weighing 311 pounds. The corn eaten per day per 100 pounds live weight varied from 1.95 pounds eaten by pigs fed 84 days and averaging 207 in weight, to 5.19 pounds eaten by pigs averaging 65.58 pounds. In one case in the fourth week of pen feeding two pigs gained 3.21 pounds each per day—at the rate of 16.81 pounds per bushel of corn. This was the greatest gain per day and was also the best rate of gain in any trial. There seemed to be no constant relation between the weight of the pigs or the season of the year, and the food eaten or the gains made.

In four trials, pigs fed all they would eat of shelled corn with blue grass pasture at 4,216.5 pounds of corn and gained 905 pounds, which was at the rate of 12.04 pounds gain per bushel of corn. Pigs under like conditions, except that they were fed but half as much corn, ate 2,190 pounds of corn and gained 505 pounds, which was at the rate of 12.93 pounds per bushel. Pigs in dry lots fed shelled corn and gained 790.5 pounds, which was at the rate of 10.52 pounds per bushel.

After periods varying from six to nine weeks, the pigs which had been fed a half ration of corn on pasture, were given a full feed of corn, the others being fed as before. In three trials lasting four or five weeks each, the pigs which had had a full feed of corn throughout ate 1,796 pounds of corn and gained 329 pounds, which was at the rate of 10.11 pounds per bushel. Those which had been fed a half feed of corn in the first part of the trials ate 2,075.5 pounds of corn in the second part gained 462.5 pounds, which was at the rate of 12.5 pounds per bushel. Those fed corn only ate 1,624.5 pounds of corn and gained 224 pounds, which was at the rate of 7.44 pounds per bushel.

In two trials pigs fed soaked corn ate more and gained more than those fed dry corn. In one trial they gained more and in one less in proportion to food eaten than those fed dry corn. The differences were not great in either case.

Two pigs in a two-acre pasture in which three yearling steers were fed corn gained in 24 weeks 195 pounds. In a second trial two pigs with like conditions gained 231 pounds in 31 weeks. In neither case was the gain large. In each case the pigs at the close of the trial were in good condition for full feeding and made large gains when so fed.

A trial of apple pomace as food for pigs resulted unsatisfactorily. The pomace kept well; chemical analysis of it showed an apparently good composition for feeding purposes; but the pigs ate very little of the pomace.

Pinkeye Contagious.

Dr. Fleming, principal veterinary surgeon of the British army, is of the opinion that the veterinary authorities of this country are correct in regarding "pinkeye" in horses as a contagious and infectious specific fever transmissable directly from animal to animal. He said, further, that persons passing from a sick animal to a healthy one would convey the disease. It was undoubtedly due to one or more germs, there might be two or three germs producing it; but there were grounds for believing that the germs could develop not only in the animal body but outside it—in the atmosphere. Only on that behalf could they account for certain outbreaks. Although the mortality attending the latest outbreak has been greater than in any other, they would have to schedule the whole country to stop it; and he thought the time had not yet arrived for that. He advised those who had horses to observe closely the prevalence of the disease, and if they saw symptoms of it, to rest the horses at once.

Salt the Cows.

It is hardly necessary to tell people who handle stock that they should be salted regularly. It seems to be as necessary as food itself, judging from the way they will beg for it. Not only is it relished, but observation and experience teach that salt is necessary to the best health of a cow. Prof. Robinson, of the Guelph experimental station, Ontario, says, after experimenting along that line, that "to deny cows salt for even one week reduces their flow of milk 14½ to 17½ per cent. in quantity and lowers the quality." Milk given when the cows are deprived of salt, he says, "will sour 24 hours sooner than that given when they have a full supply of it. It is greatly relished by all animals, which is a strong presumptive evidence in its favor, and there cannot be a reasonable doubt at this late day that salt is beneficial to milch cows."

Destroying Chinch Bugs on Corn.

The numerous letters received at this station in relation to the chinch bug show this pest is now moving from the grain fields into the corn fields. Any remedies tried must be quickly applied. It is now too late to introduce infected bugs, such as have been sent out by Prof. Snow, of Kansas. The kerosene emulsion remedy here recommended is being successfully used by Dr. E. Fred Russell, of Poynette, Columbia county, as was learned from a personal inspection.

How to make the emulsion—Slice half a pound of common bar soap; put it in a kettle with one gallon of soft water and boil until dissolved; put two gallons of kerosene in a churn or stone jar and to it add the boiling hot soap solution; churn from twenty to thirty minutes, when the whole will appear creamy. If properly made no oil will separate out when a few drops of the emulsion are placed on a piece of glass. To each gallon of the emulsion add eight gallons of water and stir. Apply with a sprinkling pot.

Every farmer should learn to make this emulsion as it is a most useful insectitude. It is especially valuable for killing lice on cattle and hogs. Paris green will not kill chinch bugs.

If the bugs are not yet in the corn plow a deep furrow along the side of the field; they will enter and throw into it stalks of green corn. When the bugs have accumulated on the corn, sprinkle with the emulsion. Put in fresh stalks and sprinkle whenever the bugs accumulate. If they break over the barrier, as they probably will, run a new furrow a few rows back in the corn and repeat. Where they have attacked stalks of standing corn destroy by sprinkling.

If the remedy is tried it should be used persistently. To kill one lot of bugs and then stop will do little or no good. When the bugs threaten to destroy as much as five or ten acres it will pay for one or two men to devote their whole time to the warfare. Only a part of each day, however, will be needed. Some corn will be lost at best, but the most of the field should be saved.

Anyone trying this remedy is requested to send the results of his experience to this station.

Result of Rough Treatment.

Among the brute creation man has no better friend than the horse. With them, however, as with human beings, much depends upon early training. An exchange speaking upon this subject, says that "a gentle horse is more than it would be if not gentle. What is termed viciousness in horses is frequently nothing but sheer timidity, and almost invariably is the result of rough treatment. Horses would not give way to fear when man approaches them if they had been accustomed to receive always kind and humane treatment. Now that the season for putting the young colts into the hands of trainers is at hand, it is a good time to teach not to fear the approach of a human being. They are fond of being petted, and with constant kindness will become quite docile. A nubbin of corn, a handful of grain, or a little sugar offered occasionally will gain their confidence, and they will gradually lose all fear of mankind. The spirit of trustfulness thus inspired, and the resulting gentleness of disposition, will last through life, unless adverse influences are allowed to intervene."

The Wheat Midge.

This insect is known also as the Red Weevil, on account of the color of the maggots or young, and under this name will be best recognized by farmers, especially those who witnessed its ravages in 1854. Others will readily understand the nature of the pest by its occurrence in the heads of the wheat under the chaff, giving these, when very abundant, a reddish appearance somewhat resembling rust.

The pest has this season appeared in wheat on the grounds of the Ohio Experiment Station in such numbers as to be noticeable, and seems to warrant an inquiry as to its occurrence in other portions of the state. The station authorities desire to receive information upon the following questions:

1. Its occurrence in Ohio during the present year.
2. The variety of wheat attacked.
3. Number of consecutive years infested fields have produced wheat.

Information from Paulding, Henry, Putnam, Wood, Hancock, Sandusky, Seneca, Huron, Crawford and Richland counties, is especially desired, as it was in these counties that the outbreak of 1854 was the most severe, causing a loss in the state that year of probably not less than 8,000,000 bushels of wheat.

Notes for the Farm.

Shelter the implements.

Sow turnips on bare spots.

Push the warfare on weeds.

What are you going to take to the fair?

During these pushing days be considerate of the teams.

Texas promises to produce more than 2,000,000 bales of cotton this year.

Don't be afraid of getting up too much swamp hay or brakes; well stacked they will come handy.

Be sure the cattle are secure nowadays. Weak fences ruin many a corn field and spoil many a cow.

Most crops are best harvested when ripe—the weed crop should be harvested green, the greener the better.

The last week of July, 1890, the stock of old flax seed in Chicago was but 11,200 bushels, this year it was 201,383 bushels.

Did you promise the boys they might go fishing when the oats were cut? Don't forget it. Why not go with them? Take wife along.

If you cannot top out a stack well, a covering of green slough grass will pay a good profit if it should rain before threshing time. Try it.

Where one man puts too much work on the seed bed for fall sown wheat 100 men put too little. Don't be afraid of being the one man.

More than half the oats coming to market now are new, grading mostly No. 2 and No. 2 white; 420 cars were received one day last week. The largest receipts of the season.

Should a shower interfere with the haying or stacking, what work would pay better than all hands to cut down unripe weeds in the fence corners and along the field roads?

The first bale of cotton of this year's crop was received July 7 at Houston, Tex., from Duval county, in that state. The first bale last year came from the same county on July 23.

In Macoupin county, Ill., wheat is turning out from twenty to thirty bushels with here and there a piece going a little more and a few, very few, going below. These would be much better had they not been injured by an insect.

Two cars of new spring wheat were received at Chicago, July 28. They were the first to arrive of this year's crop and came from Nebraska. The wheat graded No. 3, and sold at 86½ cents free on board. The first car last year was received July 16.

Those who have whitewashing to do in the stable, hen-house or cellar, will find the force pump used for spraying trees, etc., a very convenient implement, and more expeditious than the whitewash brush; the whitewash should be strained through a fine wire sieve, so as not to clog the spraying nozzle.

The rats for the past year or two have been very bad in Dahlgren township, Ill. The F. M. B. A. have now taken the matter in charge, and the lodges in the township have gone into a competitive hunt to close on the first Saturday in September. The lodge that kills the most rats will get a $5 banner.

TALMAGE IN TOPEKA.

The Soul Too Valuable To Be Sold for Trinkets.

The Man Who Sells Himself to the World Is Always Sure to Get Cheated.

Topeka, Ks., Aug. 10.—Dr. Talmage's subject for Sunday was: "A poor investment," and the text Isaiah lii. 3, "Ye have sold yourselves for nought; and ye shall be redeemed without money."

The Lord's people had gone headlong into sin, and as a punishment they had been carried captive to Babylon. They found that iniquity did not pay. Cyrus seized Babylon and felt so sorry for these poor captives that without a dollar of compensation he let them go home. So that, literally, my text was fulfilled: "Ye have sold yourselves for nought, and ye shall be redeemed without money."

There is enough gospel in this text for 50 sermons. There are persons here who have, like the people of the next, sold out. You do not seem to belong either to yourselves or to God. The title-deeds have been passed over to "the world, the flesh, and the devil," but the purchaser never paid up. "Ye have sold yourselves for nought."

When a man passes himself over to the world he expects to get some adequate compensation. He has heard the great things that the world does for a man, and he believes he wants $250,000. That will be horses and houses, and a summer resort, and jolly companionship. To get it he parts with his physical health by overwork. He parts with his conscience. He parts with much domestic enjoyment. He parts with opportunities for literary culture. He parts with his soul.

And so he makes over his entire nature to the world. He does it in four installments. He pays down the first installment and one-fourth of his nature is gone. He pays down the second installment and one-half of his nature is gone. He pays down the third installment and three-quarters of his nature are gone; and after many years have gone by he pays down the fourth installment, and lo! his entire nature is gone.

Then he comes up to the world and says: "Good morning. I have delivered to you the goods. I have passed over to you my body, my mind, and my soul, and I have come now to collect the $250,000." "Two hundred and fifty thousand dollars?" says the world. "What do you mean?"

"Well," you say, "I come to collect the money you owe me, and I expect you to fulfill your part of the contract." "But," says the world, "I have failed. I am bankrupt. I cannot possibly pay that debt. I have not for a long while expected to pay it." "Well," you then say, "give me back the goods." "Oh, no," says the world, "they are all gone. I cannot give them back to you." And there you stand on the confines of eternity, your spiritual character gone, staggering under the consideration that "you have sold yourself for nought."

I tell you the world is a liar; it does not keep its promises. It is a cheat, and it fleeces everything it can put its hands on. It is a bogus world. It is a six-thousand-year-old swindle. Even if it pays the $250,000 for which you contracted, it pays them in bonds that will not be worth anything in a little while.

Just as a man may pay down $10,000 in hard cash and get for it worthless scrip, so the world passes over to you the $250,000 in that shape which will not be worth a farthing to you a thousandth part of a second after you are dead. "Oh," you say, "it will help to bury me, anyhow." Oh, my brother! you need not worry about that. The world will bury you soon enough from sanitary considerations.

Post-mortem emoluments are of no use to you. The treasures of this world will not pass current in the future world; and if all the wealth of the Bank of England were put in the pocket of your shroud, and you in the midst of the Jordan of death were asked to pay three cents for your ferriage, you could not do it.

There comes a moment in your existence beyond which all earthly values fail; and many a man has wakened up in such a time to find that he has sold out for eternity, and has nothing to show for it. I should as soon think of going to Chatham street to buy silk handkerchiefs with no cotton in them, as to go to this world expecting to find any permanent happiness. It has deceived and deluded every man who has ever put his trust in it.

History tells us of one who resolved that he would have all his senses gratified at one and the same time, and he expended thousands of dollars on each sense. He entered a room, and there were the first musicians of the land pleasing his ear, and there were fine pictures fascinating the eye, and there were costly aromatics regaling his nostril, and there were the richest meats and wines and fruits, and confections, pleasing the appetite, and there was a soft couch of sinful indulgence on which he reclined; and the man declared afterwards that he would give ten times what he had given if he could have one week of such enjoyment, even though he lost his soul by it! Ah! that was the rub!

He did lose his soul by it! Cyrus the Conqueror thought for a little while that he was making a fine thing out of this world, and yet before he came to his grave he wrote out this pitiful epitaph for his monument: "I am Cyrus. I occupied the Persian empire. I was king over Asia. Begrudge me not this monument." But the world in after years plowed up his sepulcher.

The world clapped its hands and stamped its feet in honor of Charles Lamb; but what does he say? "I walk up and down, thinking I am happy, but feeling I am not." Call the roll and be quick about it. Samuel Johnson, the learned! Happy? "No. I am afraid I shall some day get crazy." William Hazlitt, the great essayist! Happy? "No. I have been for two hours and a half going up and down Paternoster Row with a volcano in my breast." Smollett, the witty author! Happy? "No. I am sick of praise and blame, and I wish to God that I had such circumstances around me that I could throw my pen into oblivion." Buchanan, the world-renowned writer, exiled from his own country, appealing to Henry VIII. for protection! Happy?

"No. Over mountains covered with snow, and through valleys flooded with rain, I come a fugitive." Moliere, the popular dramatic author! Happy? "No. That wretch of an actor just now recited four of my lines without the proper accent and gesture. To have the children of my brain so hung, drawn and quartered, tortures me like a condemned spirit."

I went to see a worldling die. As I went into the hall I saw its floor was tessellated, and its wall was a picture gallery. I found his death chamber adorned with tapestry until it seemed as if the clouds of the setting sun had settled in the room. The man had given forty years to the world—his wit, his time, his genius, his talent, his soul. Did the world come in to stand by his deathbed, and clearing off the vials of bitter medicine, put down any compensation? Oh, no! The world does not seem to like sick and dying people, and leaves them in the lurch. It ruined this man and then left him. He had a magnificent funeral. All the ministers wore scarfs, and there were 43 carriages in a row; but the departed man appreciated not the obsequies.

I want to persuade my audience that this world is a poor investment; that it does not pay 90 per cent. of satisfaction, nor 80 per cent., nor 20 per cent., nor 2 per cent., nor 1; that it gives no solace when a dead babe lies on your lap; that it gives no peace when conscience rings its alarm; that it gives no explanation in the day of dire trouble; and at the time of your decease it takes hold of the pillow case, and shakes out the feathers, and then jolts down in the place thereof sighs, and groans, and execrations, and then makes you put your head on it.

Oh, ye who have tried this world, is it a satisfactory portion? Would you advise your friends to make the investment? No. "Ye have sold yourselves for nought." Your conscience went. Your hope went. Your Bible went. Your heaven went. When a sheriff under a writ from the courts sells a man out, the officer generally leaves a few chairs and a bed, and a few cups and knives; but in this awful vendue in which you have been engaged the auctioneer's mallet has come down upon body, mind, and soul: Going! Going! 'Ye have sold yourself for nought.'

How could you do so? Did you think that your soul was a mere trinket which for a few pennies you could buy in a toy shop? Did you think that your soul, if once lost, might be found again if you went out with torches and lanterns? Did you think that your soul was short-lived, and that, panting, it would soon lie down for extinction? Or had you no idea what your soul was worth?

Did you ever put your forefingers on its eternal pulses? Have you not felt the quiver of its peerless wing? Have you not known that, after leaving the body, the first step of your soul reaches to the farthest outposts of God's universe, and that it will not die until the day when the everlasting Jehovah expires? Oh, my brother, what possessed you that you should part with your soul so cheap? "Ye have sold yourselves for nought."

But I have some good news to tell you. I want to engage in a litigation for the recovery of that soul of yours. I want to show that you have been cheated out of it. I want to prove, as I will, that you were crazy on that subject, and that the world, under such circumstances, had no right to take the title deed from you, and if you will join me I shall get a decree from the high chancery court of heaven reinstating you into possession of your soul. "Oh," you say, "I am afraid of lawsuits; they are so expensive, and I cannot pay the cost." Then have you forgotten the last half of my text? "Ye have sold yourselves for nought, and ye shall be redeemed without money."

Money is good for a great many things, but it can not do anything in this matter of the soul. You can not buy your way through. Dollars and pounds sterling mean nothing at the gate of mercy. If you could buy your salvation, heaven would be a great speculation, an extension of Wall street. Bad men would go up and buy out the place, and leave us to shift for ourselves. But as money is not a lawful tender, what is? I will answer, Blood! Whose? Are we to go through the slaughter? Oh, no; it wants a richer blood than ours. It wants a king's blood. It must be poured from royal arteries. It must be a sinless torrent. But where is the king?

I see a great many thrones and a great many occupants, yet none seem to be coming down to the rescue. But after awhile the clock of night strikes 12, and the silver pendulum of a star swings across the sky, and I see the King of heaven rising up, and he descends, and steps down from star to star, and from cloud to cloud, lower and lower, until he touches the sheep-covered hills, and then on to another hill, this last skull-shaped, and there, at the sharp stroke of persecution, a rill incarnadine trickles down, and we who could not be redeemed by money are redeemed by precious and imperial blood.

We have in this day professed Christians who are so rarefied and etherealized that they do not want a religion of blood. What do you want? You seem to want a religion of brains. The Bible says: "In the blood is the life." No atonement without blood. Ought not the apostle to know? What did he say? "Ye are redeemed not with corruptible things, such as silver and gold, but by the precious blood of Christ."

You put your lancet into the arm of our holy religion and withdraw the blood, and you leave it a mere corpse, fit only for the grave. Why did God demand the priests of old to strike the knife into the kid, and the goat, and the pigeon, and the bullock, and the lamb? It was so that when the blood rushed from these animals on the floor of the ancient tabernacle the people should be compelled to think of the coming carnage of the Son of God. No blood, no atonement.

I think that God intended to impress us with a vividness of that color. The green of the grass, the blue of the sky, would not have startled and aroused us like this deep crimson. It is as if God had said: "Now, sinner, wake up and see what the Saviour endured for you. This is not water. This is not wine. It is blood. It is the blood of my own Son. It is the blood of the Immaculate.

It is the blood of God. Without the shedding of blood is no remission. There has been many a man who in courts of law has pleaded "not guilty," who nevertheless has been condemned because there was blood found on his hands, or blood found in his room; and what shall we do in the last day if it be found that we have recrucified the Lord of Glory, and have never repented for it?

You must believe in the blood or die. No escape. Unless you let the sacrifice of Jesus go in your stead you yourself must suffer. It is either Christ's blood or your blood.

"Oh," says some one, "the thought of blood sickens me." Good. God intended it to sicken you with your sin. Do not act as though you had nothing to do with that Calvarian massacre. You had. Your sins were the implements of torture.

Those implements were not made of steel, and iron, and wood, so much as out of your sins. Guilty of this homicide, and this regicide, and this deicide, confess your guilt to-day. Ten thousand voices of heaven bring in the verdict against you of guilty, guilty. Prepare to die, or believe in that blood. Stretch yourself out for the sacrifice, or accept the Saviour's sacrifice. Do not fling away your one chance.

It seems to me as if all heaven were trying to bid in your soul. The first bid it makes is the tears of Christ at the tomb of Lazarus; but that is not a high enough price. The next bid heaven makes is the sweat of Gethsemane; but it is too cheap a price. The next bid heaven makes seems to be the whipped back of Pilate's Hall; but it is not a high enough price.

Can it be possible that heaven cannot buy you in? Heaven tries once more. It says: "I bid this time for that man's soul the tortures of Christ's martyrdom, the blood on his temple, the blood on his cheek, the blood on his chin, the blood on his hand, the blood on his side, the blood on his knee, the blood on his foot—the blood in drops, the blood in rills, the blood in pools coagulated beneath the cross; the blood that wet the tips of the soldiers' spears, the blood that splashed warm in the faces of his enemies."

Glory to God, that bid wins it! The highest price that was ever paid for anything was paid for your soul. Nothing could buy it but blood!

The estranged property is bought back. Take it. "You have sold yourself for nought; and ye shall be redeemed without money." O, atoning blood, cleansing blood, life-giving blood, sanctifying blood, glorifying blood of Jesus! Why not burst into tears at the thought that for thee he shed it—for thee the hard-hearted, for thee the lost?

"No," says some one; "I will have nothing to do with it except that, like the enemies of Christ, I put both my hands into that carnage and scoop up both palms full, and throw it on my head and cry: 'His blood be on us and on our children!'" Can you do such a shocking thing as that? Just rub your handkerchief across your brow and look at it. It is the blood of the Son of God whom you have despised and driven back all these years. Oh, do not do that any longer! Come out boldly and frankly and honestly, and tell Christ you are sorry. You cannot afford to so roughly treat him upon whom everything depends.

I do not know how you will get away from this subject. You see that you are sold out, and that Christ wants to buy you back. There are three persons who come after you to-day: God the Father, God the Son, and God the Holy Ghost. They unite their three omnipotences in one movement for your salvation. You will not take up arms against the Triune God, will you?

Is there enough muscle in your arm for such a combat? By the highest throne in heaven, and by the deepest chasm in hell, I beg you look out. Unless you allow Christ to carry away your sins, they will carry you away. Unless you allow Christ to lift you up, they will drag you down. There is only one hope for you, and that is the blood. Christ, the sin-offering, bearing your transgressions. Christ, the surety, paying your debts. Chist, the divine Cyrus, loosening your Babylonish captivity.

Would you not like to be free? Here is the price of your liberation—not money, but blood. I tremble from head to foot, not because I fear your presence, but because I fear that you will miss your chance for immortal rescue. This is the alternative divinely put: "He that believeth on the Son shall have everlasting life: and he that believeth not on the Son shall not see life, but the wrath of God abideth on him." In the last day, if you now reject Christ, every drop of that sacrificial blood, instead of pleading for your release as it would have pleaded if you had repented, will plead against you.

O Lord God of the judgment day! avert that calamity! Let us see the quick flash of the cimiter that slays the sin but saves the sinner. Strike, omnipotent God, for the soul's deliverance! Beat, O eternal sea! with all thy waves against the barren beach of that rocky soul, and make it rtemble. Oh! the oppressiveness of the hour, the minute, the second, on which the soul's destiny quivers, and this is that hour, that minute, that second!

Some years ago there came down a fierce storm on the seacoast, and a vessel got in the breakers and was going to pieces. They threw up some signal of distress, and the people on shore saw them. They put out in a lifeboat. They came on, and they saw the poor sailors almost exhausted, clinging to a raft; and so afraid were the boatmen that the men would give up before they got to them, they gave them three rounds of cheers, and cried: "Hold on there! hold on! We'll save you!" After awhile the boat came up. One man was saved by having the boat-hook put in the collar of his coat; and some in one way and some in another; but they all got into the boat. "Now," says the captain, 'pull for the shore. Pull away, now; pull!" The people on the land were afraid the lifeboat had gone down. They said: "How long the boat stays. Why, it must have been swamped and they have been swamped and they have all perished together." And there were men and women on the pier-heads and on the beach wringing their hands; and while they waited and watched, htey saw something looming up through the mist, and it turned out to be the life-boat. As soon as it came within speaking distance the people on shore cried out: "Did you save any of them?" And as the boat swept through the surf and came to the pier-head, the captain waved his hand over the exhausted sailors that lay flat on the bottom of the boat, and cried: "All saved! thank God! All saved!" So it may be to-day. The waves of your sin run high, the storm is on you, but I cheer you with this gospel hope. God grant that within the next ten minutes we may row with you into the harbor of God's mercy. And when these Christian men gather around to see the result of this service, and the glorified gathering on the pier-heads of heaven to watch and to listen, may we be able to report all saved! Young and old, good and bad! All saved! Saved for time. Saved for eternity. "And so it came to pass that they all escaped safe to land."

EPPS'S COCOA

BREAKFAST.

"By a thorough knowledge of the natural laws which govern the operations of digestion and nutrition, and by a careful application of the fine properties of well-selected Cocoa, Mr. Epps has provided our breakfast tables with a delicately flavored beverage which may save us many heavy doctors' bills. It is by the judicious use of such articles of diet that a constitution may be gradually built up until strong enough to resist every tendency to disease. Hundreds of subtle maladies are floating around us ready to attack wherever there is a weak point. We may escape many a fatal shaft by keeping ourselves well fortified with pure blood and a properly nourished frame."—Civil Service Gazette.

Proposed Amendment to the Constitution of Ohio.

TAXATION.

SECTION 1. Be it resolved by the General Assembly of the State of Ohio, That a proposition shall be submitted to the electors of this State on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, 1891, to amend Section 2, of Article XII, of the Constitution of the State of Ohio, so that it shall read as follows:

ARTICLE XII.

SECTION 2. Laws may be passed which shall tax by a uniform rule all moneys, credits, investments in bonds, stocks, joint-stock companies, or otherwise; and all real and personal property according to the true value thereof in money. In addition thereto, laws may be passed taxing rights, privileges, franchises, and such other subject matters as the legislature may direct; but burying grounds, public school houses, houses used exclusively for public worship, institutions of purely public charity, public property used exclusively for any public purpose, and other property, may, by general laws, be exempted from taxation; and the value of all property so exempted shall, from time to time, be ascertained and published as may be directed by law.

SECTION 2. At such election, those electors desiring to vote for such amendment may have placed upon their ballots the words "Taxation Amendment—Yes," and those opposed to such amendment may have placed upon their ballots the words "Taxation Amendment—No."

SECTION 3. This amendment shall take effect on the first day of January, 1892.

NIAL R. HYSELL,
Speaker of the House of Representatives.
WM. VANCE MARQUIS,
President of the Senate.

Adopted April 24, 1891.

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, OHIO, OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY OF STATE.

I Daniel J. Ryan, Secretary of State of the State of Ohio, do hereby certify that the foregoing is a true copy of a joint resolution adopted by the General Assembly of the State of Ohio, on the 24th day of April, A. D., 1891, taken from the original rolls filed in this office.

In testimony whereof, I have hereunto subscribed my name, and affixed my [SEAL.] official seal, at Columbus, the 25th day of April, A. D. 1891.

LOTS FOR $175.00

Small Down Payment---$5 Per Month!

FAIR GROUNDS ADDITION

At No Time in the History of Toledo

Have there been such rare opportunities for the prudent investor to place his money in land as at present. Toledo property is away down at rock bottom figures. Don't fail to take advantage of these prices as they are sure to go up.

Fortunes Have Been Made

By judiciously investing a few dollars in real estate, and the secret of success is often buying in a growing locality at a low figure, and holding the property

Why Don't You Buy a Home?

You may try to get around it by saying that you cannot afford it. This is nonsense as every one of us spends more money needlessly every month than the small payment required to secure a lot.

Houses Built on Monthly Payments

With a small down payment. If you are worth $5 a month you are good for a lot in Fair Ground Addition. With the New Depot, Electric Street Ry. Water and City Gas this part of the city is bound to go ahead and prices will be from 50 to 100 per cent. higher a year later.

MILLIONS OF DOLLARS IN TEETH

The Amount of Gold Carried in the Mouth of Philadelphians

"Four full tons of the purest gold is carried around in the mouths of Philadelphia inhabitants."

It was a well-known dentist's supply man that yesterday revealed this forgotten asset of the Quaker city, says the Philadelphia Record, and his formidable array of figures was sufficient proof that the estimate was nigh to the fact. "It is not difficult," he went on, "for us to tell about how much of the precious metal is yearly rammed into the aching teeth of Philadelphia. It is something short of 3,000 ounces. Now, the average length of human life we will say is thirty-five years. Multiply the two together, and we have an approximation to the sum total of gold that an army of dentists have placed in the molars and bicuspids of all those now living in the city. It is 8,750 pounds, or about four long tons.

"As to the value of this unfortunately unavailable wealth it is over $2,500,000. The gold used in the trade is worth about $25 an ounce, so that a year's consumption costs $75,000. Such figures makes one feel like unloading his ivories of all their treasure and substituting some less valuable metal."

"Your figures are all right," said a prominent Walnut street dentist in confirmation of the supply man's estimate. "And just think," he went on, "what a gold mine some of our cemeteries are. There must be $100,000,000 worth of shining gold in all the acres of burial ground about Philadelphia. But the veins are full of flaws, and gold-mining on the body-snatching plan would hardly be a success."

Benefiting the World.

To help humanity reach a higher standard of health, morality or prosperity, is indeed, benefiting the world. Rev. M. E. Slots, Pastor of M. E. Church East, Springfield, Ohio, speaks as follows of a means of improving the health of children: "Touching the use of Dr. Hand's Remedies for children, I cheerfully state that we found them to be the most effectual remedy for bowel complaints in children we ever used in our family." The change of season may affect your child when you will want a remedy to check the wasting disease and to build up the system. Dr. Hand's Diarrhœa Mixture and his General Tonic—25 cents each, will do the work. Try them.

SPECTACLES AND WRINKLES.

If Beauty Wants to Keep a Full Round Face She Must Wear Glasses.

If a man or woman, particularly the latter, wishes to preserve good looks and avoid wrinkles in her face, he or she must wear glasses. I noted a score of faces on the street, says an optician in the St. Louis Globe-Democrat, and each face was wrinkled very much, because the sun's rays poured down with blinding heat, and it was impossible to avoid it. The wrinkling of the face was an involuntary action of the muscles to protect the eyes, and the squinting look that was apparent on each face was an indication that the eyes were suffering from the intensely bright rays of the sun. In each case the eyes were weak, not weak enough to interfere with the power of sight, but nevertheless weak enough to be apparent. The constant blinking and squinting produced a permanent contraction of the muscles and corrugated the skin of the face, so that after a while wrinkles would appear.

There were three things to be done. To avoid wrinkles, and the puckered appearance of the face under the eyes, a person with weak eyes should habitually carry a parasol or umbrella. This course is not always practicable. So, when it is not possible to carry a parasol or an umbrella, a person should always keep the eyes closed when not in use, for instance, when riding in the cars. The third means of avoiding wrinkles and the contraction of the muscles under the eyes is to wear spectacles. This latter means of protection is not likely to be adopted by many people, particularly by many of the fair sex.

REGREENING OF VEGETABLES.

A French Industry That has Reached Dangerous Proportions.

It may be a superfluous task to paint the lily or to gild the refined gold, but re-greening of vegetables has assumed the proportions of a gigantic industry, which has its headquarters in France, gives employment to 20,000 persons and represents a business of 40,000,000 francs.

Nine-tenths at least of the green preserved vegetables sold in France or abroad are said to be regreened with sulphate of copper to give them the appearance of freshness.

According to the British Medical Journal the Glasgow health committee have decided that, as the French government have annulled their regreening prohibition, it remains for consumers to take care of themselves.

"A foolish British public," says the Glasgow report, "expects to get green peas at Christmas such as it gets from the market gardens in summer. The French manufacturer makes them to suit his whim. The consequence is that it eats stale peas greened with sulphate of copper all the year round."

A curious fact is said to be that the largest sale of preserved peas takes place in that period of the year when fresh peas are in season.—Newcastle (Eng.) Chronicle.

AN OSPREY CATCHING FISH.

How the Bird Goes About it to Get a Dinner From the Sea.

There is no more interesting sight on the Jersey coast than to see an osprey dart upon a fish. If he is high in air, and has long been slowly and gracefully sailing above the water, you will know the instant that he sees a fish. It will be apparent that he sees it, because he will cease his forward flight, pause, and watch the water intently. A few strong strokes of his powerful wings bring him to the point from which he means to descend. He does not, it is said, poise his body above the fish, but at a distance to one side or another of a vertical line above it, so that his descent is made at an angle. Contracting his wings and lowering his head, he allows his body to drop, not heavily, but with that control which a sailor would call "steerage way." Just before he reaches the surface he closes his wings and strikes the water heavily, with a splash and sputter that would accompany the impact of a stone upon it.

In most cases the bird has hit the fish fairly and has gripped its body in its long talons. In such an event the spectator has but just seen the splash when he sees the bird's great wings unfurled and its body rising directly, with the struggling fish at leg's length below it. Naturalists declare that the larger ospreys can lift and fly with a five-pound fish.—New York Sun.

REALLY A WONDERFUL INSTITUTION.

A City of Tents Crowded with Novelties and Wonders.

Few of those who visit the Barnum and Bailey circus have a definite idea of the magnitude of the enterprise controlled by the two leading showmen of the world. It is a town by itself, larger than many that have established municipal governments. Messrs. Barnum and Bailey have 1,200 persons on their pay rolls, and their arrangements are so perfect that in 24 hours they can travel 150 miles, put up and take down the immense canvas tents and give two performances and a parade, besides allowing ample time for rest and food. The performances are as elaborate as they can be made, and the spectacle, "Nero or the Destruction of Rome," is far beyond the reach of anything before attempted under canvas, and is actually of such enormous proportions that no building in America is large enough to contain the half of it. Showmen of a few years ago would have scouted the idea that such a feature could be added to a traveling exhibition. These facts explain why the organization and the two Americans who manage it have attracted such attention both in America and Europe. Messrs. Barnum and Bailey have planned an exhibition which is not only without an equal in its line, but which will, by its very magnitude prevent rivalry and imitation. It is the modern circus, as unlike the old sawdust show as the electric light is unlike the tallow dip. It will be here in its undivided greatness on August 15, with the monster street parade on the day of the arrival of the show.

A Questionable Pursuit.

Complaints are made of a band of baking powder tramps whose tricks upon unsuspecting housekeepers seem to partake very much of the nature of confidence operations. The band is composed of women, although employed and directed by an agent of the other sex, and their method of procedure as explained by several ladies who have been victimized, is as follows: Obtaining access to the kitchen, they introduce the subject of baking powders, inquiring the kind used in the family and volunteer to "test" it to ascertain its qualities. Their "test" consists in placing the can on a hot stove or over a lamp or gas jet or in mixing the baking powder with water both hot and cold. If the baking powder is good for anything, the heat will, of course, expel the leavening gas, which is apparent to the sense of smell, and has a faint, aromatic odor. The claim is then made that this odor indicates something detrimental, although, as a matter of fact, a baking powder that would give off no gas when subjected to heat would be without leavening power and valueless. Of course, the object of these alleged tests is to destroy confidence in all other kinds of baking powder and to sell the particular brand for which the women are traveling.

It is a fact that the baking powder which these alleged "testers" are trying to introduce was shown by the recent official tests to contain both lime and sulphuric acid, the result of impure material from which it is made, besides being inferior in leavening qualities. The result of using such a baking powder must be impure food.

The only way to protect our food from being contaminated by tramps of this kind is to turn all persons who wish or attempt to tamper with it unceremoniously from the door, and to use those articles, only which experience has proved satisfactory, or the official tests have established as pure and wholesome.

FIFTEEN SHOTS PER SECOND.

Wonderful Magazine Rifle Which Was Invented by a Miner.

Very little has appeared in the papers about a new rapid-firing gun which was recently invented by R. M. Catlin, a mine superintendent of our town. This gun has a Winchester band and stock, with a 15-repeating magazine in the stock. It is a trifle heavier than the ordinary Winchester, but its great feature is that the whole 15 shots may be fired in one second.

The shells are thrown out, and at the end of the firing the gun is as clean as though only a single cartridge had been exploded. An instantaneous photo was taken of the gun in action, and while the exposure was made five shells were in the air tossed out by the inconceivable rapid working of the gun. All that the man who does the shooting has to do is to fill the chamber with cartridges, cock the gun, and then pull the trigger as many times as he wants to shoot. The gun is accurate at long or short range.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.
